Farm Bureau membership includes many benefits such as free notary service, aid in filing gasoline forms and a $1,000 tractor accident policy.

Rollo White, County Farm Bureau president, urges farmers to join and become a part of this voice of agriculture. The Farm Bureau, which is local, national and international in its scope and influence, is an independent, voluntary, non-government organization of farmers and their families associated to safeguard and promote the agricultural industry in a manner consistent with the general welfare.

Three of every four farmers belonging to a farmers organization are Farm Bureau members. The annual Perquimans County Farm Bureau dinner will be held at the Perquimans County High School cafeteria Friday night, October 4, from 5 until 7 o'clock. Class Holds Successful Book Drive Shown above is the Young Adult Class of Berea Church of Christ standing behind approximately 750 books which were recently collected in a book drive for Roanoke Bible College of Elizabeth City. The class wishes to take this opportunity to thank everyone in the Hertford-Perquimans area who donated books and also to thank those businesses who donated window and wall space for pastors advertising the drive.

Winslow-Blanchard Motor Co. Will Join In Sponsoring Ford Punt, Pass And Kick Contest

Perquimans area grade school boys from eight through 11 can pit their football skills against thousands of other boys throughout the nation in the third annual Punt, Pass and Kick competition which will culminate with a trip to Washington, D. C., for a White House tour, then to Dearborn, Michigan, and then an appearance at the National Football League championship game for the top eight winners.

Sponsored nationally by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company and the National Football League, the Punt, Pass and Kick program—or PPK—will be staged at Perquimans High School Memorial Field by Winslow-Blanchard Motor Company, Inc.

Perquimans youths will be tested for their ability to punt, pass and kick (using a kicking tee) footballs on the same day as thousands of other boys all over the country, with warm-up jackets, football helmets and autographed footballs to be given as first, second and third prizes for each age group, or four top Perquimans winners, in all. Scores throughout the state then will be compared to determine the four top North Carolina winners, and these scores compared to determine the most skillful eight, nine, ten and eleven year old fledgling football stars in each of the areas covered by the telecasts of the 14 National Football League teams.

Area winners and their fathers will receive all expense paid trips to a National Football League game in their area and will compete during half-time to determine the four top Eastern Division winners and four top Western Division winners. These eight boys, accompanied by their parents, will visit Washington, D. C., where they will tour the White House. They will then travel to Dearborn, Michigan, and tour Greenfield Village. The entire group then will go to the site of the NFL championship game for half time competition to determine the four national winners.

Cecil E. Winslow of Winslow-Blanchard Motor Company has pointed out that there is no body contact necessary in the competition, no charge for entering and no special equipment needed. "Registration is now open and will last through October 11," he said, "with Winslow-Blanchard Motor Company as the registration headquarters." Mr. Winslow said entrants will be judged on the distance and accuracy of their punting, passing and kicking (using a kicking tee), with points awarded for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly and subtracted for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of a center line. The Perquimans competition will be held on Memorial Field at Perquimans High School at a date to be announced.

Take A Look At Yourself

By ILA GREY WHITE
Home Ec Extension Agent
Home Demonstration Club members have taken a look at themselves at Home Demonstration September meetings. Take a look at yourself in the mirror.

What do you see? Somebody tall, short, skinny, fat, blond, brunette, happy, sad? Maybe it is time to look at yourself in another way. How does your personality rate?

How does your personality grow? Just as everyone has 206 bones, there are some basic ingredients in personality, too. We are all born with the capacity to love, get angry and be afraid. Individuals go through steps in personality development. Do you know what they are?

1. Sense of basic trust (infancy). Baby learns to trust that he will be fed when hungry, held when he cries.

2. Sense of autonomy (2 years of age). Child recognizes himself as an individual, is assertive and independent.

3. Sense of initiative (3 to 5 years). Likes to try out new things and ideas.

4. Sense of accomplishment (6 to 13). Child learns to do things. Likes success and praise when he does it well. Develops a feeling of self-respect and self-confidence.

5. Sense of identity (12 to 15). He learns about himself and his family. Develops a feeling of individual identity.

6. Sense of intimacy (13 to 18). Wants to share friendship, ideas and problems with others, his own age, including those of the opposite sex.

7. Parental sense (18 to 25). The individual wants to create and develop a feeling of wanting to care for other people and things.

8. Sense of integrity (26 and up). Individual learns to feel a responsibility for outside the family in the community, country and world.

Remember that each succeeding step builds on the others. How can we improve our personalities? List your strong points such as trusting, independent, creative, friendly, like children, and have sympathy for people less fortunate.

Then list your weak points such as distrusting, afraid, shy, have no ideas, lack of self-confidence, afraid to try, worries about what others think, anti-social, intolerant of children, no talents, and unconcerned about others' problems.

Take advantage of opportunities for experiences which will help you grow in areas where you are weak such as:

1. Try to be the kind of person others can trust. Keep secrets.

2. Start making decisions for yourself and graduate to bigger ones.

3. Be creative. Each week vary a dish you cook such as adding cheese to biscuits, putting different icings on your cakes and reading something different.

4. Develop a new skill; learn to smock, crochet, a new pattern, make yeast bread.

5. List all the reasons why you are glad you are who you are. Try to put others at ease and you will be more comfortable, too.

6. Spend five minutes a day enjoying an activity with a child.

Indians Win Over Ahsokie To Make Third Win

The Perquimans Indians rolled to a 27-0 victory over Ahsokie here last Friday night on Memorial Field.

The Indians' offense moved quickly and expertly through the Ahsokie defense to score four touchdowns. Perquimans also turned in a fine defense with the work of Mack Nixon, John Stallings, Gene Yohn, Archie Miller, Joe Riddick, Charles Woodard and Nate Brinn standing out.

Ahsokie was never able to penetrate further into the Indians' defense than the 20-yard line.

Perquimans now has won three games without yielding a single score.

In the opening scoring action Freddie and Francis Combs and Jimmy Byrum took the ball from the Perquimans' 23 to the Ahsokie 38 with repeated line drives, alternated with around end skirts. Billy Cale, fullback, took a pitchout 38 yards to score the first touchdown. Freddie Combs passed to Jimmy Hunter for the extra point.

Perquimans took the ball on downs in the middle of the second quarter to launch the second touchdown drive. The Indians received the ball on their own 38. Freddie Combs made several drives and then went off right tackle from the Ahsokie 18 for the second tally. Francis Combs took a pass from Freddie Combs for the extra point.

Perquimans came back in the second half to score a touchdown in each quarter. The Indians took a punt on their own 15 and moved to the 35 from where Freddie Combs, assisted by fine blocking by Jimmy Byrum, went off right tackle for 85 yards for the third score and Hunter kicked the extra point.
