awarded to Whiteston, New Hope and Bethel communities. The blue ribbon award was $52.22, $100.00 or award of $39.17, was presented to Belydere and Winfall communities.

Mrs. Thomas Proctor, Community Development County Council secretary, gave the 1953 summary and evaluation as reported by the five participating communities. The communities were judged on the morning of the awards night program.

Judges visited each community, received oral reports and toured community improvements. Main emphasis included increasing income, home improvement, youth improvements and community projects.

Four of the communities had regular meetings. One community worked through a committee and the organizations within the community. Each community was to have set goals for community improvements and work through a community effort to improve situations in each community. The purpose of community development is to bring about closer working relations between people within a community to strive for its betterment.
