Two Cars - Pickup Truck Among Numerous Items Sold At Auction On Friday

Final preparations are being made for the annual fish fry and auction sale to be held this Friday night, July 31, beginning at 6 o'clock, states Tom Brown, chairman of the event.

Proceeds from this event will go to the Perquimans County Recreation Lot and will be used to pay old debts and the salary of the recreation director, who has done such a fine job so far this summer. This annual event will be held on the grounds of the Perquimans County Recreation Lot and is put on each year by the Hertford Jaycees with the cooperation of the other civic clubs in the county. Dilbon Young, chairman of the Ticket Committee, reports that tickets are on sale from members of all the civic clubs in the county. Advance sales have been somewhat slow in being turned in, but a good crowd is anticipated for the event. If anyone desires additional tickets, they may be obtained by contacting either Dilbon Young, Ed Harmon or Tom Brown.

N. C. HD Clubs Meet At New Bern

A "Down East" meeting is being announced by Miss Isabelle Buckley, president of North Carolina Home Demonstration Agents Association. This annual meeting of all county home economics agents' associates and assistants will convene in New Bern on July 30. Mrs. Ila Grey White, home economics extension agent, and Mrs. Paige L. Underwood, associate home economics extension agent, will attend the meeting.

An estimated group of 200 agents will have an educational bus tour on Thursday afternoon. The women will tour the Hampton Museum and Institute of Fisheries Research (a branch of the University of North Carolina). They will pass through the port terminals (North Carolina State Ports Authority) with a briefing by an employee. A visit will be made to the crab processing plant at Davis. The tour will conclude with an in-comparable treat, a "Down East Clam Bake." Following the meal Dr. A. F. Chestnut, director of the Fisheries Research Institute, will speak on "What Is Being Done In Research To Help Improve Our Seafood Products."

Friday's conference will begin with an executive board business meeting. The officers will then be joined by the other agents for a tour of the beautiful Tryon Palace. Tryon Palace was built in 1767-1770, and restored 1932-1939. It is noted as the most beautiful building in the Colonial Americas.

Miss Aldyne Winslow Writes About Her Tour In The Orient

Miss Aldyne Winslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis P. Winslow of Hertford, is currently touring the Far East with the "Singing Ambassadors." During one week in Korea, the singers presented 18 concerts in Korea's largest auditoriums to capacity crowds. They made two television appearances and recorded six radio, including most of Korea over eight stations. Their appearances included singing for more than two thousand people in the largest Protestant church in the Orient, programs for other local churches and schools, and also for the American G.I. Miss Winslow reports that the Korean reactions were always enthusiastic.

When asked for a statement, she had this to say: "Upon our arrival in every Korean city, we were met by welcome banners and brass bands. The people were extremely eager to meet us and to hear our songs."

Jaycees Backing New Snug Harbor Beach, Boat Club

The Hertford Junior Chamber of Commerce has pledged its support to the new Snug Harbor Beach and Boat Club, located four miles south of Hertford on the state road route No. 1240 in Perquimans County.

A spokesman for the local Jaycees stated the club feels that this is a worthwhile community project and program and has a lot to offer the people of Perquimans County and for this reason they have pledged their support to the new enterprise, and plan to sell memberships and work with this project.

Anyone interested who would like to investigate this type of program is asked to go down to Snug Harbor at any time, enjoy a cook-out on Saturday or Sunday and feel free to call on the Hertford Jaycees for any information or assistance they may be able to render.

It is hoped by the local club that a large number will buy memberships to Snug Harbor Beach and Boat Club, as when you join through the Jaycees, your membership not only entitles you to membership in the new beach club, but the money collected will also serve as a source of funds for the Jaycee local community development projects. The money stays in the county and will be used for most worthwhile projects sponsored by the Jaycees.

The new Snug Harbor Beach and Boat Club has much to offer in the way of entertainment. It is sponsoring a fishing rodeo at present with weekly prizes, trophies and cash with the grand prize to be given away in September.

There is no cost or obligation attached. You may register Saturdays and Sundays. There is a free boat launching ramp, parking, picnic areas and a fenced playground for the children.
