Burgess News
The Burgess Home Demonstration Club entertained their husbands at a covered dish supper at the Agriculture Building Wednesday night. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. B. Perry. The Lord's Prayer was repeated and The Old North State was sung. Mrs. Ila Grey White and Pete Thompson gave an interesting demonstration on Housing. They emphasized the importance of studying and planning carefully before building. Also taking into consideration location, size, and arrangement, being sure that the house is properly zoned for working, living and sleeping. Refreshments were served by Jean Alexander and Mary Ann Combs.
Those attending were Pasquon Central, Helen Larabee and Carol Aldridge; Elizabeth City, Grace Whiteman; Columbia, Mary Ann Combs; Manteo, Sandra Rountree; Perquimans County High School, Frances Newby; Chowan, Loraine H. Rogerson; John A. Holmes High School, Mrs. Edna Reeves; Gates County, Evelyn B. Willey; Currituck, Jean Alexander; Plymouth, Carolyn Brinkley; Knapp High School, Carol G. Lewis.

Teachers Enjoy Regular Meeting
Interesting educational experiences were brought before the members of the Albemarle area home economics teachers at the March meeting held at Perquimans High School recently. Each teacher related and illustrated some outstanding classroom on Future Homemaker's activity. Program chairman Frances Newby and Frances Warren had asked each teacher to relate and illustrate some outstanding activity from her classroom or Future Homemaker chapter that may be beneficial to her coworkers.
Refreshments were served by Jean Alexander and Mary Ann Combs.

Chevrolet

workpower

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.
