

Wish Held

Business and Women's Club held covered dish supper March 18, at the home of Marie S. Elliott with E. Young, president.

Smith program chair introduced Mrs. Mary Dale Personal. Development who gave a most informative and informative program to better develop personally by analyzing problems, deciding what can be done about them and then action. With the help of Mrs. Elliott, she gave 21 points to make yourself into a more personable type of person.

Mrs. Mary W. Cobb was welcomed as a new member and Mrs. Dorothy Dilday, Mrs. Adelle Keegan and Mrs. Silas Whed-

Missionary Group Has March Meeting

The Woman's Missionary Society of Berea Church of Christ held its March meeting on Friday night, March 19 at the home of Mrs. Fannie Hurdle.

The meeting was begun by singing "Anywhere With Jesus." The 14th chapter of Proverbs was read by Mrs. Hurdle, after which she led in prayer.

The secretary called the roll with 13 members being present. The minutes were then read and approved.

Mrs. Bertha Cohoon gave the missionary lesson on the "Philippines."

Mrs. Fannie Hurdle taught the lesson, which was a study of the first chapter of First Thessalonians and questions were asked at the end of the study.

"Brightly Beams Our Father's Mercy" was used as a closing hymn, followed by the benediction, given by Mrs. Dewey Yeates.

The hostess then served delicious cake, nuts and ice cream.

Mrs. Stallings Taken in Death

Mrs. Eva Simpson Stallings, 75, died Saturday morning at 12:15 A. M. following a long illness. A native of Chowan County, she had lived in Wintfall most of her life. She was the daughter of the late John Worthington and Mrs. Sadie Bass Simpson and widow of Dennis R. Stallings. She was a member of the Epworth Methodist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Taylor of Route 6, Greenville, Mrs. Hazel Jackson of Route 4, Elizabeth City and Mrs. Mary Ruth Rogerson of Route 3, Hertford; one brother, John Simpson of Route 2, Hertford; one half brother, Claude Simpson of Hertford; one half sister, Mrs. Alice S. Roach of Route 2, Hertford; 11 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services were held Monday at 3 o'clock in the chapel of the Swindell Funeral Home by Rev. C. P. Pearce, pastor of the Epworth Methodist Church.

"Ivory Palaces" and "Have Thine Own Way" were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. Durward Barber, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Walter Nowell, organist.

The casket pall was made of red carnations, white chrysanthemums, baby's breath and fern.

Pallbearers were Durward Lee Barber, George Thomas Roach, Charlie Fowler, Joseph Barber, Sam Bush and Lindsay Earl Barber.

Burial was in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

Dr. R. L. Poston Expresses Thanks

Dr. Poston expressed his appreciation to the Hertford Volunteer Fire Department, each and every member, for their outstanding performance in containing and extinguishing the fire in his office in Wintfall on March 14.

"The teamwork and enthusiasm as well as the technical training and ability saved both Mr. Jordan and myself considerable expense and equipment. I feel that the entire Department deserves high praise for this accomplishment," Dr. Poston concluded.

Temporary offices have been established in the back of the building and Dr. Poston has resumed a regular schedule of hours.

Oil Men Advocating Use of State Tax Money for Highways

Only Use of the state income from automotive taxes exclusively for highway financing, the purpose for which these levies were imposed, and adoption of a Constitutional Amendment to accomplish that, was advocated Tuesday by J. Emmett Winslow, Chairman of Perquimans County Petroleum Industries Committee, upon his election as chairman at a meeting held in the Hotel Hertford.

Hal In Ring, J. T. Benton, Perquimans County's Representative in the last General Assembly, has announced his candidacy for re-election.

Thomas J. Long Dies at Home in Bethel: Thomas J. Long, 74, died at his home in the Bethel Community of the county on Wednesday following three years illness.

Carl Britt Voted Best Dressed Student: Carl Britt, who is a student at the Spartanburg Textile Institute, at Spartanburg, S. C., was recently voted the best dressed student on the campus and received the next highest vote for the best looking student.

Tim Rufus Brinn Named Life Guard: Tim Rufus Brinn was appointed life guard at the bathing beach for next summer at the meeting of the Town Council on Monday night. The young man, who is a student at Duke University, held the job last summer and his services were very satisfactory. His was the only application on file.

New Park: A breakwater to be constructed even with the breakwater on the property of H. C. Stokes, will be built by the Town at the foot of Punch Alley, and the area will be drained and filled in and furnished with benches and made attractive to those who wish to see and enjoy the view of the river. There was some suggestion that each of the other streets of the town which lead to the river on Front Street and Grubb Street, should eventually be put into shape for the public to have an opportunity of enjoying the riverfront.

High School Closes Earlier This Year: Last Day May 4th—The Perquimans High School will close earlier this year than has occurred in any previous year of its history, and all the other schools of the county will close at the same time, on May 4th.

Completion of New 15-foot Alley Affords Traffic Relief

A fifteen-foot alley connecting Market and Grubb Streets, to intersect Market Street between the Hertford Clinic and the Stokes Building and to meet the intersection of Punch Alley on Grubb Street, will be open to traffic in about two weeks. The project, devised chiefly to relieve traffic congestion on Hertford's main business thoroughfare, Church Street, will be open to traffic in two weeks, according to Mayor Silas Whedbee.

Seth W. Long Receives Award

Seth W. Long, long time employee of the Soil Conservation Service at Hertford, has been awarded a Safe Driver Award for 15 years, announces W. O. Lambeth, area conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, Edenton. To receive this award Mr. Long had to drive a government vehicle at least 2,000 miles each year. Any motor vehicle accident reported under the National Safety Council fleet contest rules is a break in the record in the calendar year in which the accident occurred and previous year's records are not credited.

To earn one of these awards an employee must observe all speed limits, ordinances and safe driving practices and demonstrate proper interest in the maintenance of government equipment.

Seth W. Long was presented his Safe Driving Award by Mr. Lambeth at an area staff meet-of one to make an investigation of conditions, made a report. He stated that there was asbestos covering over the boiler and that he found the floors of the furnace room were kept free of paper and trash. He also reported that the cinder floors of the building opened outside, and that when a fire drill was held it took only a little over two minutes to get the children out of the building, with the exception of those of one room. The matter of no fire escapes, with particular reference to the auditorium, which is on the second floor,
