Vol. XXXII.-No. 21

Hertford, Perquimans County, North Carolina, Friday, May 21, 1965.

THE PERQUIMANS WEEKLY

Probable Cause Found In Manslaughter Case By Judge Chas. Johnson

Johnnie Larry Moore, charged in Perquimans Coun-ty Recorder's Court with Joel Juan Lightfoot, 15-year-old Negro, was fatally in-jured as fle walked along the highway with two compan-ions near the Perquimans Union School in Winfall last month. The worth was month. The youth was struck from behind by a car passing another vehicle as he reportedly stepped onto the ed term of school. highway.

Probable cause was found at the Tuesday session of Recorder's Court, and the case was ordered placed on the Superior Court docket for trial. Bond was set for Moore at $500.

Johnnie L. Moore, 22, of Hobbsville, was the driver of the car that struck Lightfoot. The accident occurred at 8:15. It was investigated by State Highway Patrolman Donald R. Cumbo.

Robert Umphlett, charged with driving drunk, was giv-en 60 days. The sentence to be suspended upon payment of $100 fine and court costs. Hattie Harrell was found not guilty of assault on Elnora Perry.

Preston Copeland was found not guilty of assault on his wife, Margaret Copeland.

Ind. The following were charg-ed with speeding: William R. Vaughn, $44.25 plus the costs; Archie C. Leferree, James P. Rosch, Michael Don Durante, George W. Lane, J. E. Stallings, each $10.25 plus the costs; Thomas Lane Stuller, Jr., $20.26 plus the costs; John T. Ward, $18.25 and costs; Richard Edward Palmer, $12.25 plus costs; James E. Evans and Faye T. Stacy, each $5.25 plus costs. Myrtle S. Felton, failure to dim lights when meeting maffic, was taxed will costs vot court:

Randolph S. Ward, failure to see intended movement could be made in safety, court costs. Prayer for judgment was continued in the case charg-ing Laura M. Lowe with

Thomas Earl Jefferson nproper equipment, court

Mittie Felton, drunk on

Only a little more than a week remains for the child-ren of Perquimans to go to

Presbyterian Church, will preach the baccalaureate ser-mon. This will take place in the auditorium of the school, the services begin-ning at 8 o'clock. The in-vocation and benediction will be given by Rev. Norman Harris, pastor of the Hert-ford Baptist Church.

On Tuesday night, June 1, the commencement exercises will be held when approximately 88 boys and girls will receive their diplomas, with Dr. Allan B. Bonner, chair-man of the Perquimans County Board of Education, making the presentations. The valedictorian of this class is Phyllis Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nixon of Route 3. The salutatorian is Miss Margaret salutatorian is Miss Margaret Ainsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ainsley. Class officers are: Presi-dent Phyllic Nivon: vice dant Phyllic Nivon: vice Marshals for the

ris, chief, Nancy Matthews, Betsy Kirby, Lela Mae Long, Joe Haskett, Ethel Ruth Spruill, "Georgia Stallings, Donald Perry and Mark

william B. Stallings, charg-ed with disobeying a stop sign, was taxed with the Slated At ECC annual commencement pro-gram at East Carolina Col-week remains for the child-ren of Perquimans to go to school, the schools closing on June 1, after an uninterrupt-ed term of school. The graduation exercises of Perquimans High School will be held on Tuesday, June 1, 1965. The first of the commence-ment exercises of the high school will be held on Sun-day night, May 30, when Rev. Harold White, supply pastor of West Greenville Presbyterian Church, will preach the baccalaureate ser-

Mind IT WATT STATETY STATETY

Announcement of a national "Teen Forum" open to local teen-agers has been made by Sidney Harmon of Harmon's Pharmacy, Mr. Harmon believes that the nation's druggists are responsible, civic-minded in-dividuals who share a national concern for the growing incidence of juvenile crime.

Teen-agers will be invited to speak out on their prob-lems and responsibilities by class officers are: Presi-dent, Phyllis Nixon; vice president, Nate Brinn; secre-tary, Nancy Bundy; treasur-er, Brenda Byrum. Mascots are Cheryl Jones and Tony Jordan. by and a girl) will be se-lected from each state on the basis of their essays and will be flown to Washington, D. C., to participate in a Teen Forum.

Two national champions togain a boy and a girl) will a selected from the 100 land and Czechoslovakia, to observe the opportunities of youth in other countries. Mr. Harmon emphasized that this is not a "commer-cial contest" — that is, no purchases are required for entering. food establishments in this The program opens May 1 area will open in Hertford

A total of 1,330 candidates for graduation expect to re-ceive bachelor's or master's licipation is limited of teen-ticipation is limited of teenagers who have not yet fin-Golden Chain Taps Miss Cook

Hertford's new ultra modern Colonial S ore. Shown is the exterior of the fine, new super market which opens here next Thursday, May 27 by the Colonial Stores, Inc It's located in midtown at the new Harris Shopping Center, the new super market offers a complete shopping service for this entire section with numerous new depart-ments including a self-service Meat Department. Many parking spaces are provided in the asphalt paved parking lot in front and on the side of the store for the conveni-ence of customers. The new store involves a huge investment. Employment in the new store will almost double the farmer location in downtown Hertford.

Jake Chesson, above, is Sheldan Bateman, of the George Sutton, Assistant Manager of the Produce De-Manager of the Produce De-partment, a job he has held with Colonial for a number of years. He is a native of partment, for a number of years.

4-H'ers in County Will Chose Royalty On Saturday Night

Honor Is Paid Dr. F. B. Holley

Dr. Floyd B. Holley, a native of Hertford, a product of the Hertford public schools and a resident of New York City, was one of the University Honors Scholars recently honored by New Pork University at its Founders Day Convocation held at Town Hall in New York City.

his doctorate degree in sociology from New York University in 1964, also holds degrees from Shaw University and the Columbia Uniersity School of Social Nork. He is a school psyhiatric social worker, New York City Board of Education, Bureau of Child Guidance, and a psychotheropist with the Narcotics Rehabilitation Program of the New York City Departments of Health and Hospitals.

He served as teacher, dean, assistant principal and CCC Camp educational advisor in North Carolina before enter-ing World War II from Hertford in 1942. He held clinical and supervisory positions with the New York State Training Schools for Boys and was a field work at 2:30 P. M., at Perquimans instructor for the Atlanta Union School, Winfall, N. C. and the New York University Schools of Social Work prior to coming to the New York City Board of Education in 1957.

Dr. Holley is the author of "Perquimans County - A Case Study In Community ing of "Five North Carolina Negro Educations." H's dx-toral thesis, "Case History Factors Associated With Juvenile Parole Adjustment," has been, chosen for publication.

He is an active member of the Academy of Certified Social Workers, the National Association of Social Workers, the Council of Psychia-tric Social Workers in the New York City Board of Education, the American Sociological Society, the Board

The fourth annual countywide 4-H King and Queen of Health and Miss Perquimans County ceremony will be held Saturday, May 22, at 2:30 P. M., at Perquimans County Union School auditorium, Winfall, N. C. The winners in the contest

Copy

this year are as follows: 4-H King, Larry Broady, Schior Clovers 4-H Club; 4-H Queen of Health. a tie be-tween Carolyn W. Burke, Pool's Grove 4-H Club and Florina Foreman, Busy Bees 4-H Club. The Miss Per-Dr. Holley, who obtained quimans County winner this year is Alline Jones, Senior Clover 4-H Club. The 4-H King and Queen of Health was selected on the basis of the most outstanding achievement made to their personal health, community, project and the winner in the oratorical contest on "The Importance of Milk in the Diet." The purpose of this activity is to develop interest in 4-H boys and girls to improve individual health, family health and the health of the community. Carolyn W. Burke, Pool's Grove 4-H Club, Florina Foreman, Busy Bees 4-H Club, and Larry Broady of Senior Clover 4-H Club will be crowned in a special ceremony Saturday, May 22 at 2:30 P. M., at Perquimans These participants will be crowned by Doris Holley and Leon James, 4-H King and Queen of Health winners for 1964. They are from Pool's Grove 4-H Club. Alline Jones, Senior Clovers 4-H Club member, Hertford, will Organization," and one of the collaborators in the writ-ing of "Five North Carolina Overton, the Perquimans County winner for 1964. After the ceremony, the county-wide 4-H Ball will start under the supervision of the 4-H Leader Organization. The music for the organiza-tion will be rendered by the "Randy and the Rockers Band" of Currituck County. Winfall 4-H sponsoring committee will furnish the refreshments for the 4-H Ball. Vandals Damage of Stewards of the Mother Zion Church and of several Rural Mail Boxes was not his desire to cause mail box vandalism has been reported to the Post Office

Department for investigation.

It is hoped that this news fine and costs of court, as degrees at East Carolina was the verdict in the case charging Hettis Bogue with being drunk on the streets annual commencement proof Hertford.

Mrs. Jones Wins Honor

The final meeting for this term of the King Street Ele-mentary School PTA held Monday night, May 17, was climaxed with the crowning of. Mrs. Alline Jones as "Mrs. PTA." She represent-ed the second grade teacher, Miss Nellie Holley. A total of $96,60 was realized from this propert of $30,00 was realized from this project. A brief devotional period was observed. Routine busi-ness included previous min-utes, a discussion of play-ground equipment and the purchasing of letters of the school's name.

school's name. The matter of leveling and grading the campus was dis-cussed and the group was informed of progress and plans being made. A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. Lenora lowscr. Mrs. Sarah. Down-ng and Alphonno Felton was pointed.

Refreshments were served

Winfall Music Recital Friday

Mrs. Georgia R Il music pupi resented in a re-

Baccalaureate degrees will await 1,100 members of the await 1,100 members of the Eleven new induces have class of 1965; master's de-grees are to be awarded to 230 candidates. Sunday's chain, UNC-G honorary sograduates outnumber by about 140 the previous recciety. Students initiated are Lou-ord, 1,193 degree recipients ise Avett, Norwood; Mabel (Pete) Cook, Hertford; Syl-via Eidam, Columbus, Ga.; Kathy Chermak Goorley, Inat June. Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, presi-dent of the college, will con-fer the degrees at 5 P. M. ceremonies in Ficklen Sta-Washington, D. C.; Dot Hos-tettler, Statesville; Judy Kinard, Concord; Karen Ostdium.¹ Awarding of the de-grees will follow the com-mencement address by North Carolina Governor Dan K.

loore. The candidates for gradu-

The candidates for gradu-ation include five from Per-quimans County, Jack El-llott Brinn, Jr. (AB); Sallie, Ann Benton, Route 3; Kath-ryn Mooring Bonner, Route 1; Ervin: Eugene Mansfield, Route 1 (BS); Gilliam Wil-son Underwood (MA).

The two honorary mem-bers initiated are Miss Mar-jorie Hood and Miss Jose-phine Shaffer of Greensboro.

Agency Opened

By Broughton

Sidney Broughton of Wil-mington, Del., a native of Perquimans County, son of Mrs. Vera Batton and twin brother to Julian Broughton of Hertford, opened Sid Broughton Dodge, Inc. in WINFALL WOMAN WINS IN CONTEST

Mrs. Evelyn Felton won a Pepsi Cola certificate worth $10 from Fred's Grocery in Winfall last week. Many local residents have entered the Pepsi contest and there have been other win-ners, we understand. gion, Del., recent ilmington area a dealership. The will sell Dodge president CANCER MEETING a bas There will be a meeting he Board of Directors lay, May 25, at 8:30 o'clock. Company officials have announced that the latest addition to one of the nation's largest food chains is one of the finest super markets in the Carolinas. It involves investments in the excess of this county.

One of the most modern

An invitation from the officials of the company is extended to all residents of Perquimans and the surrounding counties to visit the store during the Grand Opening Week. There is ample parking space to take care of 178 cars at the new store. The store itself comapproximately 8,300 prises square feet of floor space. Ann Phillips, Swepsonville; Jodi Rush, Charlotts; Shir-ley Saleeby, Wilson; and Jean Whitaker, Oak Ridge. one express, to speed the flow of traffic through the store. For the customers' convenience, there are wide aisles providing ample shop-

Miss Cook lives on Boute 3, Hertford. Membership in Golden Chain is based on a consid-eration of the following qualities: leadership, scholar-qualities: leadership, scholarping space. The arrangement of the store has been set up or-derly to provide easy to follow shopping, making the ship, service, tolerance, mag-mity, judgment and packaged and are plainly marked with the name of the item, price per pound, actual weight and total price. The shopper can quickly choose what they want from the many sizes and cuts in the open-face refrigerated cases. If, however, something spe-cial is wanted, a special cut or added quantity of any merchandise, store personnel will be readily available to take the order and transmit it to the cutting room for prompt personalized service. There are a transmodus humber of lients of name brand merchandize available including the femous GS in-the famous GS is

n foods will receive a and on Page S

Present Location of Graves: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Harvey, and son, John Hert- the Perquimans County Unford, and their daughter, ion School of Winfall wound Alexandria Louise, of Akron, up a successful season in

MAY, 1938

Harvey Descendant Favors

Harvey, appointed deputy governor of North Carolina in 1694, visited the old graveyard of his ancestors in Harvey's Neck while here and appeared greatly interested in the recent movement on the part of a few local people to restore the ancient graveyard. He has expressed the hope that it will be decided not to remove the graves to Hertford as has been suggested, but to restore the graveyard on its present and original location. Mr. Harvey's son's name, "John Hertford Harvey," appears Continued on Page Six

Firms Present Seniors Gifts

W. M. Divers & Son Jewelers is presenting again this year gifts to the members of the Perquimans High School low shopping, making those clers is presenting again this items you are looking for easy accessible. The store the Perquimans High School provides a complete self-service meat department. Meats are pre-cut and pre-packaged and are plainly marked with the name of the ans High School and Perquim-marked with the name of the ans High School and Perquimquimans Union School with miniature Lane cedar chests

These places of business have been giving gifts to the graduates for many years in the past.

TWO LOCAL YOUTHS INSTALLED IN FRAT.

Two local youths, students of the College of the Albe-marle, John Stallings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Stallings of Woodland Circle and ings of Woodland Circle and Reggie Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Baker of this county, were installed as new members in the Phi Theta Kappa honor fraterni-ty last week at installation services held at the Black-unit Mannoris L Barbird

will Memorial Baptist Church

Take Top Honor

The boys' track team of Ohio, were in Hertford for a track and field Saturday, visit last week. Harvey, a May 15 by winning the Roadescendant of Gov. Thomas noke-Chowan Athletic Championship track meet held on the campus of Elizabeth City State College by scoring 47 points. It was evident from the beginning that the swift Green Panthers from the land of beautiful women (Perquimans) were not to be denied the opportunity of adding their first conference track trophy to the various others that adorn the Panthers' lair. At high noon the green and gold clad lads of Perquimans Union started crossing the finish line no less than ten times ahead of their opponents, including the heats run in dashes. Several second place wins were also chalked up. It was the tireless feet of James Wills, a standout in ran away from a pack of started in 1944. nine pursuers and brought Perquimans its first five points. With Vatsan "Snake" points. With Vatsan "Snake" accounts to five local par-Hayes running his last race ticipants, showing how each for his alma-mater, second shared in the Company's place was gained in the 880 yard run with Howard Overton placing third. Willie Continued on Page Two

The second quarterly conference of the Oak Hill A. M. E. Zion Church, Hert-ford. will begin Friday, May 14, 1965, at 7:45 P. M. All class leaders and or-ganizations be sure to make your reports.

CHURCH SUNDAY The Cloverleaf 4-H Club will observe 4-H Church Sunday on May 23 at Mt. Sinai Church with vesper services at 5:30 P. M. The public is invited to attend these services hese services. The leaders for this are Mr. and Mrs. club Ned and $890,000 of other as other community and profes sional organizations.

Hertford Postmaster W. W. His wife, the former Mar-"Bill" White stated today it garet Hardison of Sneads has been reported that with-Ferry, is a teacher in the in the past week several rural mail boxes in this public schools of New York City. Their daughter, Marcounty have been damaged garet Bernardine, is an 8th year student at the New by persons unknown. This is a serious offense and car-Lincoln School. They reside ries a stiff penalty if the in the Riverton, a private residential community in New York owned and operguilty one or ones are apprehended. Postmaster White stated it ated by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. anyone any trouble, but the

Rose's Planning Profit Sharing

release will serve as a warn-Mrs. Kathreen Nelson, ing to others who may harmanager of the local Rose's bor ideas of having fun by Stores, Inc., announced that some 1,609 members of the damaging rural mail boxes damaging rural mail boxes Rose organization shared in for kicks. As the responsithe 1964 Company contribuble parties for the damage in tion to the Employees' Profit Sharing Trust. The contri-bution, $671,000, was the largest of the twenty-one the past week will be found and in all probability will have to pay for their pranks. consecutive annual payments "Sissy" Oakey made by Rose's since the the mile run all season, who Profit Sharing Plan was Manager Nelson handed statements of their personal 1964 profits and what each had accumulated. She pointed out that a typical partici-pant in the Plan (a saleslady in one of the stores) who QUARTERLY CONFERENCE had shared in every one of the 21 Company contribu-tions now has a balance in her account equal to two and three-fourths times her 1964 earnings and that in 1964 alone, the total credits to her account were equivalent to more than 26% of her 1964 earnings. Mrs. Nelson advised that Central Carolina Bank & Trust Company, Trustee of the Rose's Profit Sharing Trust, reports that the Fund now totals over $7.770,000, and holds $2,320,000 of U. S. Government Bonds, $1,340,-000 of Corporate Bonds, $3,220,000 of Common Stocks

We here at The are guite found of f

tiful tone. A week or so ago, as everyone here knows, dogs roam the town day and night, some have homes, others are just strays, searching around for food by night and sleeping all day. Well, any way, some of these dogs at-tacked Sis and for several tacked Sis and for several days she was quite ill. However, the Oakeys had Dr. L. A. Deese come over and take her to his hospital near Edentan, where the good Dr.'s treatment has the handsome bird dog back m her feet.

Have you missed "Sissy" Oakey, the pretty brown and white pedigreed bird dog, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W.

Back On Feet

H. Oakey, Jr., who always, until Lawyer Oakey moved his office from the Courthouse Square, opened Court in a most gracious and beau-