of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of shell pink antique satin with a waist length lace-over satin jacket made with a bateau neckline, elbow length sleeves and closed in the back with self covered buttons. Her hat of matching satin and lace featured an aside ruffled brim and open crown. Both her gown and hat were fashioned by the honor attendant. She carried a bouquet of shaded pink glame-lia.

The bridegroom's father was his best man. Ushers were Ed Nixon and Donald Madry.

Miss Frances Newby was mistress of ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Barbee wore a light blue lace ensemble, flowered blue hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Mrs. M. Sude Corprew, grandmother of the groom wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. Corprew, wore a navy blue crepe dress, pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride changed to a two piece dress of yellow whipped crepe with matching accessories, and wore a rose corsage lifted from her bouquet. The couple will live in a mobile home on Rt. 1, where the bridegroom is engaged in farming. In September the bride plans to enter the College of the Albemarle program of practical nursing.

Mrs. Corprew entertained prior to wedding.

Miss Mary Barbee was honored at a miscellaneous floating shower at the Bethel Community Building on June 29 by the aunts of the groom-elect, Johnny Corprew.

On arrival, the honoree was presented a corsage of yellow mums.

The bride-elect opened and acknowledged the many gifts.

The serving table was covered with a white linen cloth. The center piece was of mixed white flowers. Punch, wedding cake, nuts and mints was served to the most who attended.

On Monday, July 7, Misses Barbara Harrison, Peggy Elliott, Marla Copeland and Brenda Byrum entertained Miss Barbee at a surprise kitchen shower at the home of Miss Harrison.

On arrival Miss Barbee was presented a novel "kitchen" corsage. The honoree opened and acknowledged the many useful kitchen gifts. For refreshments a sweet course was served.

After the rehearsal of the Corprew-Barbee wedding Saturday night, July 10, the parents of the bride-elect entertained the bridal party at a cake cutting at their home.

The table was covered with an imported Philippine embroidered cloth centered with an arrangement of white gladiol and mums. The tiered wedding cake featured the traditional wedding roses and was topped by a miniature bride and groom. Wedding cake and mints punch and nuts were served. Gifts were presented to the members of the wedding party.
