Bethel Ceremony Unites Highsmith - Brinn Pair

BETHEL — Miss Peggy Jane Highsmith became the bride of Jack Elliott Brinn, Jr., Sunday at 4:00 P. M., in the Bethel Methodist Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ralph Highsmith of Bethel, and Mr. and Mrs. Brinn of Hertford are the parents of the bridegroom. Rev. Kenneth Sexton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of silk-faced peau de soie appliqued in re-embroidered alencon lace. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a portrait neckline and brief cap sleeves, and the semi-bell skirt extended into a full chapel train. Her veil was of hand made Brussels lace worn Mantilla style. She carried a cascade bouquet of bridal daisies and sprays of ivy centered with an orchid.

Miss Grace James of Bethel was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jo Anne Whitehurst, also of Bethel, Miss Daisy Griffith, cousin of the bride, of Ayden, Miss Susan Broughton, cousin of the groom, of Hertford, and Mrs. William Paul Shipp of Clinton. They wore floor-length gowns of pink chiffon over taffeta. The bodices were of pink lace and featured portrait necklines and short sleeves. The skirts fell from satin empire waistbands, and their headpieces were of matching satin bows with short tulle veils. Each carried bouquets of mixed summer flowers.

Jack Elliott Brinn, Sr., served as his son's best man. Ushers were Nathaniel Brinn, brother of the groom, Jack Broughton, cousin of the groom, of Winston-Salem, C. D. White of Portsmouth, Va., and James Sullivan of Greenville.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception at the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to western North Carolina, the couple will live in Morehead City where Mr. Brinn is employed by the North Carolina Institute of Fisheries Research for the summer. In the fall, they will make their home in Greenville and continue their education.

Mrs. Brinn graduated from Meredith with an AB degree in home economics and will attend East Carolina College to work towards her masters degree in guidance. Her husband, who received his AAB degree in biology from East Carolina College, will also be with the college while holding a teaching fellowship and finishing his masters degree in biology.

Couple Exchange Vows

The wedding of Miss Susan Jean Jessup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Clyde Jessup of Wilson, N. C., and Lt. Philip Randolph Taylor, son of Mrs. Jean Taylor

Heywood of Detroit, Mich., was solemnized in the First Methodist Church in Wilson, N. C., on Saturday, July 24, 1965. The Rev. Robert A. Bradshaw performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white tulle suit with pill box hat with veil. She carried a white prayer book and white roses.

The mother of the bride wore a beige silk shantung dress; her flowers were white carnations.

The bride changed into a gray cotton shantung dress with black and orange accessories for a wedding trip to Michigan.

The couple will be at home at Tyndall AF Base, Florida.

Mrs. Taylor attended Southern Seminary in Buena Vista, Va. The bridegroom is a graduate of Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va.

Though the mills of God grind slowly, yet they grind exceeding small; Though with patience stands He waiting with exactness grinds He all.

—Von Logan.

Engaged

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Percy Trueblood of Route 2, Hertford announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Betty Ruth Smith and Bryan Merritt Miller, Jr., in holy matrimony. Rev. J. Herbert Miller, uncle of the bridegroom, officiated and was assisted by Rev. Frank Parham. Mrs. Georgia Roberts accompanied Miss Helen Overton, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Miller, Sr., all of Route 2, Hertford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of bridal satin with lace covered bodice and long sleeves ending in wedding points. Her chapel train, which accented the softly belled skirt, was also covered with lace. Her elbow length veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible which was topped with a white orchid. A single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only ornament.

Miss Brenda Kay Smith, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Marcia Copeland of Belvidere, Miss Vanita Sue Griffin of Taylor's Beach and Mrs. Johnny Corprew of Hertford. The honor attendant wore a floor length gown of mint green taffeta fashioned with rounded neckline, bell skirt and elbow length sleeves. A matching bow accented the waist in the back. The bridesmaids wore dresses styled as that of the honor attendant in yellow. All attendants wore matching taffeta pillbox headpieces and carried two long stemmed yellow roses.

Flower girl and ring bearer for the occasion were Paul and Paula Miller, cousins of both the bride and groom. The flower girl wore a dress identical to the bridegroom. The ring bearer wore dark trousers and a white coat.

B. M. Miller, father of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers were Jimmy Godwin of Hampton, Va., Jarvis Miller, brother of the bridegroom, Charles Waverly Watson, Jr. of Hampton, Va., and J. H. Chappell of Hertford.

Mrs. Tommy Griffin was mistress of ceremony. She was assisted by Mrs. Cliff Morgan, aunt of the bridegroom.

Party Honors Brenda Byrum

Miss Brenda Byrum, bride-elect, was honored at a Coffee-Coke hour last Saturday morning at 10:30 at the home of Mrs. Leo Ambrose.

On arrival Miss Byrum was presented a pink carnation corsage.

The table was covered with a linen table cloth with a centerpiece of mixed cut flowers. Ham biscuits, tiny sandwiches, cheese wafers, nuts, Cokes and coffee was served to the 30 guests present.

A gift of silver was presented Miss Byrum. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Leo Ambrose and Peggy, Mrs. Royce Vickers and Lou, Mrs. Elwood Nowell and Ann.

Mrs. Tommy Griffin was mistress of ceremony. She was assisted by Mrs. Cliff Morgan, aunt of the bridegroom.

A blue linen dress with beaded top, matching accessories and a white orchid were chosen by the bride's mother for the wedding. Mrs. Miller wore a dress of mauve embroidered organza over taffeta with matching accessories and a white orchid.

Grandmothers of the bride were Mrs. M. R. Griffin and Mrs. Roscoe Smith. Mrs. Griffin chose a royal blue crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Smith wore a light green whipped cream dress with white accessories and white carnations.

A buffet supper given at the home of the bridegroom's parents followed the ceremony. Those attending included the bridal party, their families and out-of-town guests.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride changed to a light green linen dress with white accessories and the corsage lifted from her Bible. Following the trip, the Perquimans County High School graduates will make their home on Route 2, Hertford. The bride plans to attend the

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Medlin and daughter Judy, Roanoke Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Roland L. Rutter, Portsmouth, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, Danville, Va.; Rev. and Mrs. J. Herbert Miller, Lake Junaluska; Rev. and Mrs. Jimmy H. Miller and daughters Patsy and Susan, Beaufort; Mrs. Garland Mayo, Gretchen Mayo, Kinston; Mrs. Jimmy Morgan and son Dennis, Hampton, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edward Umphlett and daughter Amy Jean, Williamston; Mrs. Joseph E. Perry, Virginia Beach, Va.; Mrs. E. W. Miller, Alexandria, Va.; D. Towle, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoggard, Elizabeth City.

The bride was honored at two pre-nuptial showers, the first of which was given at the church educational building by Mrs. M. R. Griffin, Mrs. Tommy Griffin and Mrs. Ralph Mercer. Mrs. Carl Godwin, Mrs. Clifton Morgan, Mrs. Charlie Umphlett and Mrs. H. B. Miller were hostesses at a shower given at the Winfall Community Building.
