Mathews Couple Pledge Vows

Miss Betty Lynn Mathews and Hazel Benton Mathews, Jr., were married September by the Rev. Jefferson Davis in the Lemon Springs Methodist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynn Mathews and Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Benton Mathews of Hertford. Given in marriage by her father, Thomas Lynn Mathews, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and aleon lace with a bell skirt and chapel train. Her mantilla featured a deep border of matching lace, and she carried staphanotis and miniature English ivy. Miss Margaret Smith of Raleigh was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Gus Childress of Columbia, Mass., Mrs. Tommy Bridges, Miss Becky Kimball, and Miss Jenny Sharpe of Sanford. The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Wilson Mathews, brother of the bride; Reed Mathews, brother of the bridegroom; Karl Smiley of East Lansing, Mich., and John Gardner of Atlanta, Ga. The couple will live in Jacksonville, Fla.

The bride attended East Carolina College and graduated from Rex Hospital School of Nursing. She is a state's degree in entomology. He was captain of his alma mater's football team and is now district entomologist for Armour Co., in Jacksonville.

IN MEMORIAM

Mons. Thomas F. and Annie E.

In loving memory of our father, Thomas F. Monds who departed this life October 19, 1950 and mother, Annie E. who passed away September 8, 1960.

The covers of life's book are closed
For the ones we loved so well
But loving deeds of by-gone days
Are what the pages tell.

Knows His Army

Private—I haven't a pencil or paper for the exam. Lieutenant—What would you think of a soldier who went into battle without a gun or ammunition? Private—I'd think he was an officer.
