Baum-Fletcher Wedding Vows Said In Hertford

The marriage of Carolista Cabell Fletcher, Edenton, North Carolina, to Walter Gibbs Baum of Engelhard, North Carolina, was solemnized at the First Methodist Church, Hertford, North Carolina, at noon August 14, 1965. Rev. R. L. Bame performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, William Dossey Pruden. She wore a gown of chantly lace which had belonged to her maternal grandmother. The flowing veil was of tulle. She carried a nosegay of roses.

The attendants were Miss Nancy Baum, sister of the bridegroom, Atlanta, Georgia, maid of honor; Mrs. John Stuart Fletcher, sister-in-law, Greenville, North Carolina, and Miss Bonnie Bardin, Durham, North Carolina, bridesmaids.

Their dresses were cellophane green; the head dresses of matching green tulle with dark green roses. They carried arm bouquets of yellow gladioli.

John Stuart Fletcher II, Greenville, North Carolina, brother of the bride was best man. The ushers were David Fletcher, Buxton, North Carolina, brother of the bride, Fred P. Wood, Durham, North Carolina and James C. Fletcher, brother of the bride of Edenton. Christopher Wood Pruden, the bride's brother was ring bearer.

Mrs. Harry Lassiter was mistress of ceremonies. Immediately following the wedding, a breakfast was held at "Oak Grove", home of the bride's parents. Greeting the guests were Rev. and Mrs. A. C. D. Noe, Bath, North Carolina, guardians of the bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ghonoweth, unemployment Security Office as soon as possible.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late John George Fletcher and Mrs. Ingrid Fletcher, author of many noted novels. The Fletcher home, historic "Bandon" burned two years ago.

Her maternal grandparents are Captain and Mrs. David Duesy, U.S.N., Retired, Washington, D. C.

Mr. Baum's parents were the late Alvin Emmett Baum and Mrs. Elizabeth Gibbs Baum of Engelhard, North Carolina.

After a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Baum will be at home, 413 Hillsboro Street, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, where Mr. Baum will receive his degree in accounting in January. Mrs. Baum is supervisor of art in the Chapel Hill schools having taught there two years. She is also a designer of jewelry; she studied under Charles Hopkins, Chapel Hill, N. C.
