Judith Reed Is Bride Of James Carey Spear

Miss Judith Lynn Reed and James Carey Spear were married Sunday, November 14 in the First Methodist Church, Hertford, by Rev. A. L. Bame.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Durward Felton Reed, Jr., of Hertford and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly Spear of Elizabeth City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight satin and a bodice of nylon lace with panels of lace on the skirt and a chapel train. Her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white Fiji mums.

Miss Nancy Reed, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and she wore a formal gown of gold satin with a matching circle crown and veil and carried green Fiji mums with matching velvet ribbon.

Miss Rachel Bass, Miss Sydney Ann Blanchard of Hertford and Miss Janice Baynor of Plymouth and Mrs. Vernon Winslow of Asheboro, N. C., were the bridesmaids, and they wore moss green formal gowns with matching circle crowns and veils and carried gold Fiji mums with matching velvet ribbon.

Miss Susan Nixon, vocalist, accompanied at the organ by Miss Carolyn Wright, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer." Selections from the organ were "Because," "Ava Maria," "Oh Promise Me" and "Prayer."

Mrs. G. R. Tucker of Hertford and Mrs. H. B. Thompson of Richmond, Va., aunts of the bride, were mistresses of ceremony.

Bob and Gary Reed, brothers of the bride, lighted the candles and the bridegroom's father, Mr. Spear, was best man. Ushers were Edward L. Nixon, Johnny Corprew and Donald Madre of Hertford and Vernon Winslow of Asheboro, N. C.

For a wedding trip to Western North Carolina, the bride chose a gold tweed suit trimmed in brown leather with matching accessories and a white corsage of Fiji mums.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Perquimans High School, and the bridegroom attended

State College. The bride is a graduate of College of the Albemarle School of Practical Nursing.

The couple will be at home in Elizabeth City, where the bride is employed at Albemarle Hospital and the bridegroom is employed at Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company at Newport News, Va.
