Poem Written For Achievement Day

By PAUL SHOOKS WHITE
Hurrah! for the Home Demonstration Club
That helps to keep our country free.

Their light shines like an electric bulb,
For the young generation to see.

The club was organized in Raleigh in nineteen twenty.
At the College of N. C. State.

The membership has grown to be strong among many
Because their work has been wonderful and great.

Ever since the beginning of time
Until we reach our journey's end,

There have been heroes of different kinds,
But all of them haven't been men.

There have been heroes who have lived thru battles;
There have been heroes who had to roam

But the work Home Demonstration Club women do
Is the work of heroes at home.

We read and we write about different kinds of organizations
That work from sun to sun

But let it be day or night
These ladies work is never done.

May God bless our organization
With comfort, protection and peace

In our home, community and nation,
That all ill will may cease.

4-Hers Conduct Routine Business

The Whiteston 4-H Club met Monday night, January 2, at the Whiteston Community Building. The meeting was called to order by the president, after which the group pledged allegiance to the flag and repeated the 4-H Pledge. David Riddick gave a very fine devotional after which the group sang "Jesus Loves Me". The roll was called, the minutes were read and approved and a collection was taken up. The group discussed the "1967" calendars which were sold with the result that only one had not been sold. We also decided to contribute $5.00 toward the use of the Community Building. The Adult Leaders introduced Sherri Taylor to the 4-Hers. She and Douglas Taylor then presented a film entitled "Safety in the Home" which was enjoyed by all. Games were led by Darlene Williams and Terry White. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Calvin Casper and Mrs. Winford Clifton.

Please Note Carefully

We, the members of the Credit Information Department of The Associated Oil Dealers, find that we are carrying many fuel oil and kerosene accounts that have become delinquent. We want to continue making the necessary deliveries, BUT POSITIVELY CANNOT, UNLESS THESE ARE BROUGHT UP TO DATE PROMPTLY.

This ruling in no way applies to that very large number of customers who are paying their accounts on regular terms, and whose consideration is highly appreciated.

We are anxious to cooperate in every way possible.
