

Mrs. Sawyer Gets Award

Melvin H. Hearn, state director of Farmers Home Administration, last week presented Mrs. Inez H. Sawyer, county office clerk at Hertford, a $160 cash award and certificate of appreciation for sustained superior work performance.

Mrs. Sawyer was presented the award for outstanding work performed in assisting the county supervisor in the receiving and processing of loan applications and at the same time performing official duties of her position. The work load in this office has more than doubled over the past two years.

Farmers Home Administration makes supervised loans to eligible farmers and rural residents for farm and home operating expenses; buying and developing family farms; water development and soil conservation; construction, improvement or repair homes and related facilities; rural water systems; developing small watershed projects, and for emergency credit needs.
