Hertford's Fred Combs On Look's All-America Team

Wolfpack Star Picked By Sports Writers

Fred Combs, student of NC State College and a North Carolina defensive back of the Wolfpack, has been named to the 1967 Look Magazine All America team selected by the Football Writers Association of America.

Fred Combs

Combs is the son of Mrs. Alice Ferrell Combs a native of Perquimans County, and the late Charles R. Combs a Wake county native. Combs' selection is of special interest in this county. He is a 1964 graduate of Perquimans county High School where he was star athlete. Incidentally he graduated in the class with Jimmy (Cattfish) Hunter, an ace pitcher in his high school career at Perquimans High School, who accepted a $75,000 bonus offer from the Kansas City Club in June of 1964. Hunter is still with the Kansas City Club. Combs' upon his graduation entered N. C. State College at Raleigh.

Fred Combs will appear with members of the Look-FWAA team on television when Chrysler Presents The Bob Hope Show on the NBC-TV network, Wednesday night at 9 p.m. EST, November 29. "The Look 1967 All America" appears in the December 12 issue of Look, which went on the newsstand on Tuesday, November 28.

Two players from North Carolina State and one from Virginia Tech have been named

Decorations By HD Clubs Makes Xmas More Interesting

"Christmas at Home" was the theme for the 1967 Christmas Open House. Held in the Albemarle Electric Building auditorium on Tuesday, November 28-7:30 - 9:30 p.m. for the annual event. The displays will be open Wednesday from 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Furniture stores in Hertford and Elizabeth City displayed furniture groups as the backgrounds for Christmas decorations. The decoration ideas were handmade by Extension Homemakers Clubs.

Byrums Furniture Store displayed a traditional formal living room - the Bethel Extension Homemakers Club provided decorations for the setting.

Morgans Furniture Store of Hertford displayed an Early American Living Room decorated by the Snow Hill-White Hat Club and an Early American Dining Room decorated by the Wm. Hill Club.

The Chapanoke Club was in charge of the entrance and registration.

Mrs. Eva Chesson and Mrs. Archie Riddick were chairmen. Thornton Furniture Store in Elizabeth City showed a formal dining room decorated by the Helen Gather Club.

The Burgess Club decorated an informal living room. The Whitestone Club was responsible for refreshments and decorations in the lobby.

The Belvidere Club was responsible for selling items. If you wish to buy or sell Christmas decorations or gifts, contact a member of this club.

Mrs. Ila Grey White, Home Economics Extension Agent, says she hopes everyone will gain new ideas for Christmas decorations and learn to appreciate lovely furnishings.

to the Look Magazine All America team. The 28-man squad, selected by the Football Writers Association of America, was announced today in the current issue of Look.

Deep back Fred Combs and tackle Dennis Byrd are the Wolfpack representatives on the defensive unit. Frank Loria of the Goblers was another area selection on the defensive team.

Combs, who specialized in punt returns and pass interceptions, reeled off 85 and 71-yard returns in the Wolfpack's early games and streaked 70 and 38 yards with pilfered passes.

Byrd, a repeater from last year's team, was the stabilizing influence in State's rugged defensive line. He is 6'4" and weighs 250 pounds.

Loria, another repeat selection, also gained recognition with dazzling punt returns. His returns helped keep Virginia Tech unbeaten until they met Miami when Frank raced 95 yards with a punt for a touchdown in a tough loss.

The only other school to land more than one player was Southern California with three representatives. Running back O. J. Simpson, tackle Ron Yary and linebacker Matt Young were picked from USC. Yary, a repeater from last year's team, was also named winner of the 1967 Outland Trophy as the best interior lineman in the country.

The All America squad is comprised of 17 seniors and five juniors. The juniors are Leroy Keyes, Purdue's two-way star; linebacker Corby Robertson of Texas; defensive ends Ted Hendricks of Miami (Fla.) and Bob Stein of Minnesota and Simpson.

Nebraska guard Wayne Meylin is the only other repeater on the team.

All 22 members of the Look-FWAA team are scheduled to appear on television when "Chrysler Presents The Bob Hope Show" on the NBC-TV network, Wednesday, November 29.

Santa Claus To Arrive In Hertford 2 P. M. Saturday

Harry Lee Winslow and A. C. Everson stated today that contact has been made with Santa Claus and the following message received:

"I take this opportunity to assure you, that I will take part in the Christmas parade on Saturday, December 2, 1967. And that I will be present from 2 until 4 p. m. also, on Saturday, December 2, 1967. And that I

Perquimans Group To Go To Raleigh As Delegation

The Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee met here last week with the Chairman, Willie Ainsley and members Zack Robertson, Warner Madre, Archie Lane Sr. and Perquimans Chamber manager Leon I. Edwards and discussed a trip to Raleigh, and highway signs for Perquimans County and Hertford.

Not present for the meeting, but members of the highway committee were Dr. A. B. Bonner, R. L. Hollowell, Vivian Matthews, C. F. Murray, Charles Johnson, Erle Haste Jr. and Cecil Edward Winslow.

Following the reading of the minutes of the Albemarle Highway Association and the approval, Archie Lane Sr., made the motion that a ten men delegation or more, go to Raleigh as a part of the Albemarle Delegation. This delegation is to go by chartered bus if no stops are made on return trip. Warner Madre seconded Lane's motion.

Lane also made the motion that Willie Ainsley and Zack Robertson go before the Perquimans County Commissioners and Warner Madre and Archie Lane Sr. go before the Hertford Town Council, to obtain funds for two signs to advertise the city and county, to be erected at North and South entrances to Perquimans County on US 17.

Mrs. Ocie Jurash, Public Health Nurse, who attended an Institute on "TB in children", on a scholarship given by the TB Association, gave an interesting talk on the session.

Mr. Davenport read a letter of appreciation from McCain Sanatorium for a donation sent in for the Children Recreation Program. At the present time, North Carolina has thirty-two small children under TB treatment at McCain Sanatorium.

Dr. Isa Grant, Seal Sale Chairman for Pasquotank, Perquimans, and Camden Counties, said she accepted the Chairmanship because of a personal interest and the importance of the programs. Dr. Grant said, "Anyone who has had Tuberculosis and recovered is more susceptible to all Respiratory Diseases." The TB Association is looking forward to the time when active TB is no more. We are now expanding our programs, said Dr. Grant, to include research education prevention in all chest diseases.

The Christmas Seal is a familiar part of the holiday season and these little seals will provide the funds so necessary to help do the work. Dr. Grant said, "Proceeds from Christmas Seals furnish film and solution to make several thousand large X-Rays a year, promote wide spread TB test for our children, chest clinic and mobile units. All programs so much needed in TB control." Christmas Seals also provide many services the year round for our patient services, said Dr. Grant, and many research projects.

Mr. Davenport reminded the members that a total of 7,776 letters were mailed to the citizens in the area, and a quota set by the Executive Meeting of $5,850.00 which would be needed to carry on the TB & RD programs.

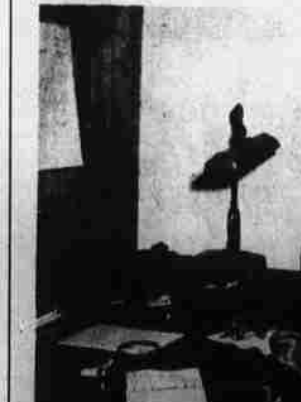

Davenport announced chairmen serving on the Christmas Seal publicity are, Charles Ward Jr., Mrs. Fannie Hurdie and Mrs. Mack Morrisette, Jr, others working with this group will be announced later, said Davenport.

Perquimans Seal Sales Lagging

Perquimans County citizens have sent in $370.00 of their $1,850.00 Christmas Seal Quota needed for the TB & RD Programs. The 1967 Campaign is now entering its third week. Dr. Isa Grant, Seal Sale Chairman of the three counties, said, "We are fast gaining on Tuberculosis in our state but with new fronts under Respiratory Diseases as emphysema, asthma and chronic bronchitis—we need to keep up a strong front." Mrs. Fannie Hurdie, representing Perquimans County in getting out publicity before the people, paid special thanks to those who made their returns promptly and to the volunteers who have been most active in getting posters out as a reminder.

Also a small reminder to readers, a colorful Christmas Seal Book Mark inserted in out going books from the Perquimans County Library and School libraries, said Mrs. Hurdie.

Seth Long Retires From S.C.S.

Seth W. Long retires as Conservation Technician with the Soil Conservation Service after approximately 20 years. Mr. Long started working part time with the Soil Conservation Service in 1947 and has been working full time since 1950. During these years Mr. Long has rendered the farmers of the county a real service in assisting them in applying conservation practices. Mr. Long says he plans to take life a little easier, doing some part time work, gardening, and looking after his rabbit boxes.

will be present from 2 until 4 p. m. also, on Saturday, December 2, 1967, in the place provided in front of the Perquimans Court House, in order that I might meet the children of your county in person. Signed, Santa Claus."

For the third year the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce has sponsored a program of putting Christ back in Christmas by using this as the theme for their Christmas parade.

Harry L. Winslow and A. C. Everson says that their has been a total of thirty-six units entered in this year parade, including four bands, nineteen floats, four marching units, a decorated bus, plus auxiliary units and a Horse and Pony Club.

All indications are, that this years parade will exceed last years. If it doesn't exceed it in number of units, it will in beauty. Santa Claus will be on the Court House lawn following the parade, to talk to the youngsters, and present them a small gift.

There are still some who have indicated they would like to take part in the parade who haven't been heard from, these should contact the Chamber office immediately, Leon I. Edwards Perquimans Chamber Manager urges.

Tri-County TB Directors Meet

The Fall Board of Directors Meeting of the Pasquotank-Perquimans-Camden TB Association met Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the District Health Dept. Mr. Eddie V. Davenport, President opened the meeting and a prayer given by Rev. Carlos Womack, Mrs. Mack Morrisette, Jr., Secretary read the minutes of the Executive Meeting.
