Hertford BPW Club Has Speaker For March Meeting

The Hertford BPW Club met Thursday night, March 21st, at the municipal building with Mrs. Marie Elliott, President, presiding.

During the business session, Mrs. Anna Harmon announced that Mrs. Pat Harrell would represent the Hertford Club in the "Young Career Woman" contest at the district meeting in Edenton March 31st. Miss Hulda Wood, over-all chairman of the upcoming spaghetti supper, named her committees and Friday night April 26th, was set as the date for said supper. Hertford Grammar School will be the place and tickets will be one dollar. The club solicits the support of the public in this endeavor.

A special guest of the club was Miss Elizabeth Allen of Elizabeth City, Supervisor of Nurses, 4-County Health District, and who for ten years was a medical missionary nurse in the Philippines. She showed slides and gave an interesting talk on her work there, which was enjoyed by those present. At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Betty Swindell assisted by Mrs. Mary Dale Lane. For the April meeting, the club will visit the Museum of the Albemarle.

APRIL FOOL'S DAY

There is a very popular designation on the first of April every year. On this particular day you are privileged to play harmless jokes on friends, or "make fools" of them. This custom seems to date back to the middle ages. Be on your guard and ready for the practical joke. Get into the fun of it even if it is at your expense. Enjoy yourself and whatever you do, don't lose your sense of humor.

... Whatever you do get to know your pharmacist. We invite you to stop by with your prescriptions. Harmon's Rexall Pharmacy, the Drugstore on the Corner, 101 N. Church St., Hertford, N. C. 426-5527.
