Home Agent Has Recipe For Grapes

Grapes are produced by many Perquimans County families. Grape preserves, spiced grapes, grape conserve, grape jam and grape jelly are in demand by the tourist who visit the Albemarle Area. Good grape conserve products are excellent products to sell. If you are interested in selling grape products, please contact Mrs. Ila Grey White, Home Economics Extension Agent.

A good recipe for spiced grapes is as follows:

- 7 lbs. grapes
- 1 pint vinegar
- 4-1/2 pounds sugar
- 1-2 tablespoons cinnamon (according to strength desired)
- 1-1/2 tablespoons ground cloves (according to strength desired)

Separate pulp from hull of grapes. Boil pulp until soft enough to remove seeds. Discard seeds. Cook the hulls in enough water to prevent sticking until tender (around 15 minutes). Add the deseeded pulp, vinegar, sugar, and spices and cook until thick. Test for doneness by placing a spoonful in saucer and chilling in refrigerator as this thickens considerably when cool.

Pack the boiling hot grapes in hot sterilized jars and process 10 minutes at simmering temperature. Be sure water in canner is one inch above tops

ABOUT YOUR HOME

The roof of your home is important enough to require the very best attention. If you are building a new home, invest in a lifetime type roof if at all possible. In the long-run this will save you many dollars. Roofing tends to wear out uniformly so the first leak in an old roof is always a serious warning. It may be that repairs will be uneconomical. Re-roofing is often the only solution.

A leaking roof always has a damaging effect on other parts of a house. To name a few items endangered—roof boards, rafters, studding, flooring, electrical wiring, plaster, paint and wallpaper.

If you do find a sign of leakage, your best bet is to call a reliable roofing expert at once. Any delay can be an expensive one.

For plain GRAPE PRESERVES leave out the vinegar and spices and cook the grapes and sugar according to the directions for spiced grapes.

For Grape jam, grind the hulls, or just use the pulp and juice and sugar and cook according to these directions.

For other recipes and information, contact Mrs. Ila Grey White.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Carr announce the birth of their first child, a son, John Edward, Jr. born Saturday, Sept. 28, at the Beaufort County Hospital, Washington, N.C.

Mrs. Carr is the former Miss Mae Belle Stallings.

In Fashion

A new style this season is that of long pants worn under dresses. The garments may be made of satin in a color combination with a sash the color of the pants. This is strictly for evening wear. If one owns a jeweled belt it may be used to dress up such a costume in place of the cloth sash.

Capes are being shown in a variety of fabrics and styles. They may be short capes of fur or velvet or they may be long capes of plaid or checkered wools.

A note from the Russians is the very long coat which may reach to the mid-calf length.

Recipe of the Week

By Sarah Anne Shvedley

BEEF BOURGUIGNON

This is a dish that I like to make the day before, especially if its for company. And the flavor improves, too. Serve with rice. This makes about 6 servings.

- 3/4 c shortening.
- 3 lbs. lean beef, cut into 1 inch cubes.
- 3 T flour
- 1 1/2 t salt
- 1/2 t pepper
- 1/2 t dried thyme
- 1 c canned condensed beef broth, undiluted
- 1 c dry red wine
- 1/2 lb. fresh mushrooms, sliced, or 1 3oz. can sliced mushrooms
- 12 small white onions

1. Heat oven to 325 degrees.
2. Brown meat in the fat then stir in flour, salt, pepper, and thyme scraping bottom of skillet well. Turn all into a 2 quart casserole. Pour in beef broth and wine. Cover casserole and bake for 2 hrs.
3. At the end of 2 hrs. add mushrooms and onions. (If mixture seems dry, pour in equal amounts of broth and wine.)
4. Continue baking for 1 to 1 1/2 hrs.
5. Remove from oven and skim any fat from gravy. Serve right from casserole.

* If you use canned mushrooms, add with juice during last half of cooking.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of My Dear Husband Elbert N. Chappell

A picture I see of a gentle face, Reflecting an image of Heavenly Grace.

A picture which shows many traces of care, And yet an expression of sweetest love there.

The work of an artist the loveliest art. A picture of one that is framed in my heart.

As though he has crossed to his haven of rest, Sweet memories of him lie wrapped in my breast.

The sound of his foot steps again I can hear. His voice I hear saying, "Come follow me."

No artist can paint a picture so fair. It takes a true husband, his love, faith and prayer. I hope to meet you some sweet day.

Loving Wife, Nellie Chappell

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Love is God's greatest gift to man. It enables him to make with joy supreme sacrifices for the benefit of others.

The man of Gallilee exemplified that in His life and death. "Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends." The Master went further still. He laid down His life for His enemies.

Around the world today where there are men or groups of men who believe in His teachings and follow Him, there are love, kindness, generosity, harmony, and peace among them. There could not be war if men followed His precepts for there would be no hate, no antagonism, no cruelty, and no revenge.

There would be love. Saint Paul tells us that "Love suffereth long, and is kind; love envieth not; vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up; seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil. And, now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love."

If you give love, love will come back to you.
