Home Makers of America Observe Meeting Recently

The Perquimans Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America met Friday, March 21 in the high school cafeteria. The opening ceremony was led by Brenda Baccus. Peggy Jennings led the FHA Prayer Song. Everyone joined in the Pledge of Allegiance to the American flag and the Lord's prayer. Linda Long read the minutes and called the roll. Diane Stallings announced that Frances Mansfield was selected FHA'er of the Month. A committee was appointed to draw up a slate of officers for next year. Miss Hinman, the student teacher, was introduced and given a warm welcome. The program consisted of a display of crafts made by members of the FHA. These crafts were judged by Ila Gray White, Sue Ferguson, and Sue Innant. Each girl is to receive a prize for her work. The girls were told about the Albemarle Craftsman's Fair to be held in Elizabeth City September 24-26. Mrs. White told the girls how they could enter crafts they had made in the Craftsman's Fair. Everyone was given a chance to look more closely at the crafts. Nan Ambrose and Patricia Lane distributed papers with scrambled words pertaining to F. H. A. Susan Harrell won the prize for unscrambling the most words. With no further business, everyone repeated the creed and the meeting was adjourned. Cheryl Copeland, reporter
