

Brewin, Ainsley Exchange Vows In Hertford Baptist Church

HERTFORD - Miss Margaret Lynne Ainsley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Franklin Ainsley, and David Walter Brewin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Edison Harris, exchanged wedding vows Saturday in the Hertford Baptist Church with the Rev. Charles W. Duling officiating.

Music was presented by Richard Apperson of Elon College, organist, and the Rev. Norman Harris, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over bridal tulle, fashioned with an empire bodice, a featured a ruffled Victorian neckline and long puffed sleeves with cuffs of Alencon lace and ruffles. The "A" line skirt was highlighted with a panel of Alencon lace and covered buttons down the front of the gown. A chapel-length train, bordered with matching lace fell from the high-rise waistline. The double-chapel-length veil of imported illusion was arranged from a triple organza bow applied in lace and seed pearls. The bride carried a basket of sweetheart roses, orange blossoms and baby's breath, with streamers of love knots and blue forget-me-nots.

Mrs. William Franklin Ainsley Jr. was matron of honor. She wore a floor length Gibson girl dress of powder blue organza. The neckline and short puffed sleeves were accented with tucks and ruffles. An "A" line skirt fell from the empire waistline trimmed with a blue satin bow. She carried a blue and white bouquet of mixed flowers with streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Aileen Beck of Raleigh and Mrs. Carl Weber King III of Elon College and Miss Jane Perry of Hertford who wore flower girl they wore gowns and carried bouquets identical to that of the honor attendant.

James Alexander Hutchins III of Alexandria, Va. was best man. Ushers were William Franklin Ainsley Jr. of Chapel Hill, brother of the bride, Gregory Beck of Hertford, Carl Weber King III and Edwin Wylie, both of Elon College.

Mrs. George Reginald Tuchar was mistress of ceremony. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ainsley chose a mint green crepe dress with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. Harris wore a yellow silk ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Following the reception in the social hall of the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. The bride changed to a dress of light blue crepe with a corsage of yellow roses.

Upon their return, the couple will make their home at 301 Church St. in Hertford.

The bride graduated magna cum laude from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a bachelor of arts degree in fine arts. She was a Reynolds Scholar, a participant in the honors program, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Mrs. David Walter Brewin

Mr. Brewin received his associate of arts degree from the College of the Albemarle where he was president of the college chorale and active in dramatics.

He will receive his bachelor of arts degree in August from Elon College, where he was a member of the Spanish Club and on the Lyceum Committee. He has studied music under Roberts Guthrie and Jesus Silva of the North Carolina School of Arts.
