N. C. 4-H Office Announces New Award

The North Carolina 4-H office has announced a new award to be presented to the state winner of the 4-H Agricultural Award, it has been established by James A. Graham, Commissioner. In announcing the award, T. C. Blalock, Director of North Carolina 4-H work, stated that a large trophy will go to the individual selected by the state judging committee as the winner of the 4-H Agricultural Project.

"We appreciate the interest and support Commissioner Graham gives to Club 4-H work in North Carolina and sincerely thank him for this award," Blalock said. The large trophy will be engraved with each winner's name and retained by him during the year. He will also be given a smaller replica of the trophy to keep.

Blalock stated that the award will be presented annually at the Recognition Banquet during the North Carolina 4-H Club Congress.

Helen Gaither Homemakers

Mrs. M. J. Gregory was hostess Thursday night, April 16, to the Helen Gaither Homemakers Club.

Frances White Is FHA'er Of Month

Margaret Mansfield, president of the Perquimans County Future Homemakers of America Chapter presided at the April meeting of the group on April 17 in the auditorium of the Perquimans High School.

The devotion was given by Pam Sutton and Sandra Smith. Following the roll call and the minutes read by Secretary Pat Lane, Gail Eure gave a descriptive report on the FHA rally in Raleigh. The theme for the rally was "Youth in Action". Plans are being made by the project committee to plant red and white petunias in the sign in front of the school, according to Linda Harrell.

This month the girl receiving the honor of FHA'er of the month is Frances White. She was chosen for her willingness to work with the club. Frances worked hard on the Mother-Daughter banquet and at making name tags for the FHA rally. All the members go out in congratulating Frances for this acknowledgment.

The meeting reached a climax with the program presented by Dr. Robert L. Poston, a physician in Elizabeth City. All the girls and their mothers were invited to see the film strip made by the American Cancer Society. Mrs. Carol Harrell and Mrs. Ila Gray White assisted Dr. Poston in showing the film strip.

Following an interesting and informative talk about cancer, the girls were given a question and answer period.
