

Wedding Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Corprew and Everett LeRoy Markham Jr. was solemnized June 14 at Bethel Baptist Church. The Reverend Gordon B. Shaw, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony in a candlelight setting of mums, palms, and gladioli.

Miss Caroline Wright, organist, presented a program of nuptial music. Miss Jane Evans, soloist, sang "Lord Let Me Live Today" and "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of peau de soie, with a bodice and bell type sleeves of Chantilly lace. The detachable train was bordered in lace appliques. Her veil of tulle was attached to a satin bow. She carried a lace covered Bible topped with a cascade of white carnations centered with an orchid. The bride's only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Larry Corprew, sister-in-law of the bride, was Matron of Honor. She chose a full length aqua gown, featuring a back panel with a chiffon bow. Her headpiece was made of chiffon petals and matching veil. She carried a nosegay of mixed carnations, and daisies, with pink streamers.

Alton Barclift acted as best man. Ushers were Larry Corprew, brother of the bride, and James R. Pierce.

Mrs. Lester Simpson, aunt of the bride, directed the ceremony. Mrs. Corprew wore a pink dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Markham chose a light blue dress with harmonizing accessories and an orchid corsage.

For traveling, the bride changed to a lilac linen dress, with accessories to match. She lifted the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Corprew, and a graduate of Perquimans County High School. She is planning to enter COA in September.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. LeRoy Markham and the late Mr. Markham, and graduated from Elizabeth City schools. Since graduating from studies in mechanics at COA he has been employed by James Bros.

The couple will make their home in Weeksville.

A shower was given by friends at Bethel Community Building. Wedding cake, punch, nuts, and mints were served to approximately 50 guests.

Following the rehearsal on Saturday night, a cake cutting was held for the wedding party.

4-H Campers Receive Awards

Four of Perquimans County 4-H Campers won the Superior Camper Certificates, at Mitchell 4-H Camp, Swansboro, North Carolina. The certificates were awarded during the Annual Banquet. The winners were as follows: Gloria Banks, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Banks, New Hope; Zelene Bunch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bunch, the second, Bethel; Velma Winslow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Winfall; and Rita Tolson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ray Tolson, Woodville.

Gloria, Zelene, and Velma were outstanding in performance and leadership. Rita was outstanding in handicraft. All of the 30 4-H delegates performed nicely while at camp. They were active in the daily activities, Vesper services, fun time, talent program, and class participation. Willie Felton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie M. Felton, Route 1, Belvidere, N. C. rocked the recreation hall with his vocal selection Rain Drops Keep Falling On My Head.

The camp staff, agents, and leaders commented on the fine cooperative spirit shared by the Perquimans County 4-H members everyone enjoyed. Thanks to the 4-H Leaders and parents for helping to make this trip possible.

Bethel Firemen's Auxiliary Meets

Mrs. E. J. Proctor Jr., opened the meeting of the Bethel Firemen's Auxiliary in the home of Mrs. B. A. Tally with twelve members present.

A very inspiring devotional was given by Mrs. Kramer Williams followed by prayer. During the business session plans were made for the bake sale to be held during the Fish Fry June 20 and members were also assigned to their duties for the fish fry. Returns were made from the sales of the cook books and napkins.

New officers were elected for the coming year continuing with Mrs. E. J. Proctor Jr. as president; vice president, Mrs. Ruby Davis; secretary, Mrs. Kathryn Brennaman; treasurer, Mrs. Madge Fleetwood; sunshine, Mrs. Kramer Williams; social, Mrs. Pat Fleetwood, Mrs. Enie Curtis, Mrs. Bessie Harrell; and Mrs. T. T. Harrell as publicity chairman.

A contest was held with Mrs. William Corprew as winner.

Mrs. Tally, assisted by her daughter, served delicious refreshments.

In Fashion

Skirts will be longer but jackets will be shorter. Some of the jackets will come to the waistline.

Slits up the sides of the longer skirts will make for easier walking and for a view of the legs.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere thanks to my friends who remembered me with beautiful flowers, cards, visits and many other acts of kindness while I was a patient in Albemarle Hospital and since my return home.
