Miss Pamela Cox Marries Rodney Bunch

In a candlelight setting of white mums, snapdragons, and palms, the marriage of Miss Pamela Dennis Cox and Rodney Clarence Bunch was solemnized Sunday, July 11, at First United Church at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. C.J. Andrews, pastor.

Nuptial music was presented by Miss Caroline Wright, organist, and Mrs. A.T. Lane, Jr., soloist, who sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis Cox of Hertford. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clarence Bunch of Rt. 1 Belvidere.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white nylon organza with panels of Val lace on the Empire waist flowing down and around the skirt. The gown featured a high neckline, Bishop sleeves and cuffs trimmed with Val lace and a narrow white satin ribbon belt at the waistline. Her mantilla was of nylon net edged in Val lace, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses centered with a white orchid.

Miss Susan Cox of Williamston, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of light blue dotted swiss with high neckline and long sleeves trimmed with Irish lace, accented at the wrist with covered buttons. Her headpiece was a small crown of dotted swiss and Irish lace with a circular veil of blue nylon net. She carried a blue carnation nosegay with blue satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Aileen Beck of Raleigh, Miss Rhonda Bunch of Belvidere, sister of the groom, and Miss Susie Carr of Gladys, Va. Their gowns and headpieces were identical to that of the honor attendant. They carried blue carnation nosegays with white satin ribbon.

Mr. Bunch was best man for his son. Ushers were Charles Asbell of Greenville, Larry White of Tyner, and Don Bunch of Hobbsville.

Card Of Thanks

Dear Friends,
It would be impossible to thank each individual who showed kindness, both large and small, to me during my recent stay in the hospital. I am thankful for the flowers and cards sent, the prayers and visits made as well as the many deeds that helped my mind to rest easy. Again, thank you.
Howard B. (Tim) Mathews

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank each and everyone for the cards, flowers and visits while I was a patient in the Albemarle Hospital and since my return home.
May God bless each of you.
