Formal Dedication Of New Educational Building Mrs. Fleetwood

The congregation of First United Methodist Church, Hertford, N.C. will celebrate an important milestone on October 24, 1971. On that date there will be the formal dedication of the new educational building. This building was completed in 1963, and the last of the indebtedness was paid April 13, 1971.

Bishop William R. Cannon, leader of the Raleigh and Richmond Episcopal Areas of the United Methodist Church, will preach at the morning worship hour at 11:00, and lead in the act of dedication of the educational building. Representing the local congregation, Mr. Keith Haskett, Chairman of the Trustees of church property, will present the building for dedication. The Reverend G. Robert McKenzie, superintendent of the Elizabeth City District, will also be present and assist in the morning worship service.

Bishop Cannon is a native of Georgia, the B.D. degree from the Yale University Divinity School, and the Ph. D. degree from Yale University. Honorary degrees have been conferred by Asbury College, Temple University, and Emory University. He was ordained into the Methodist ministry in 1940, and served pastorates in professor of Church History, are invited to be present.

Emory University, Atlanta, Ga. In 1953 he was chosen dean of the Candler School of Theology, a position he held until his election to the office of bishop at the Dalton, Ga. He received the A.B. Jurisdictional Conference at degree from the University of Lake Junaluska in July, 1968. Since that time Bishop Cannon has served in the Raleigh Area. In 1970, he was also assigned to the Richmond Area.

Following the morning worship service, a covered dish luncheon will be served in the Fellowship Hall.
