

Miss Parker Bride Of Charles Murray

Mrs. Charles Frederick Murray, Jr.

BENSON — Miss Carol Elaine Parker and Charles Frederick Murray Jr. pledged their marriage vows in a four o'clock double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, in Benson United Methodist Church. Rev. Pierce H. Layfield Jr., was the officiating clergy.

The bride is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. E.A. Parker of Benson. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Murray of Hertford.

The nuptial rites were performed in a setting of traditional wedding foliage among an ornamental arch candelabra flanked by tree candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Mrs. Estelle Bryant, organist, presented a program of wedding music.

Mr. Parker gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin and guipure lace fashioned in empire style with sheer tucked bodice highlighted with lace banding and edging and featuring a Victorian collar. The bishop sleeves of satin, confined at the hand with lace trimmed cuffs, were enhanced with lace panels; her chapel train, attached at the high waistline, was bordered with lace as was the hem line of the modified a-line skirt of the gown. Her cathedral veil of silk illusion was attached to a bride's crown of matching satin and lace. She carried a large nosegay of white roses and pink roses in graduated shades interspersed with baby's breath.

Miss Lee Eastwood of Atlanta, Ga., attended as maid of honor. She wore an apricot fall dress in Gibson Girl style with shirred bodice and long sleeves featuring yoke trimming of self ruffles. Her headpiece was a matching Gibson Girl bow and she carried a natural straw basket filled with red carnations, yellow daisies, pink roses, baby's breath and springer fern.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Donald A. Parker, of Chapel Hill, Mrs. Jimmy Crews, of South Boston, Va., Miss Beth Denning and Miss Mary Sue Parker, of Raleigh; Miss Betty Murray of Hertford; sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Maurilla Allen of Fayetteville. Their dresses and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

The bridegroom was attended by his father as best man. Ushers were Brant Murray, of Chapel Hill, brother of the bridegroom; Donald A. Parker of Chapel Hill the bride, George Richard Ward of Asheboro, Jon Schwener of East Goshen, Pa., John Melvin and Hal Garrity of Chapel Hill.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a costume of ice blue satin embellished with decorative braid and pearls with which she used an orchid purse corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a purple velvet ensemble with matching accessories with which she wore an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of St. Bayside Church of Christ (Route 165 by the Air Base)

CHARACTER GIVE-AWAY HIDDEN

Some students of human behavior say a woman's character can be judged by her ironing habits.

Take a quick look in your laundry basket. What have your left un-ironed?

Do you leave your husband's favorite shirt un-ironed until he needs it? This could mean you resent his leaving for the office while you remain at home. Or, if it's a sport shirt, you may not really want him to play golf. Do you postpone doing that large tablecloth for the next big family dinner? Maybe you don't really want to entertain.

Or, all this could simply mean that ironing still is, for most women, the most disliked household chore — time consuming, physically tiring, and seemingly endless.

Building a wardrobe of durable press fabrics helps simplify and speed up the ironing process. Usually, durable press garments require only touch-up ironing. Here, spray sizing makes this touch-up ironing faster and easier. Magic sizing, sprayed on as you iron, puts back the "like new" body and finish that laundering removes from fabrics. Even the new man-made fabrics lose their body and bounce after repeated launderings.

Then, to make the job less physically tiring, learn to iron sitting down. For this you'll need an adjustable ironing board with curved legs. The adjustable feature makes it easy for you to set the board at the most comfortable height for you, and the curved legs allow room for a stool or chair.

Let your iron work for you. Don't try to push it. Work with a lightweight iron with a smooth surface that glides effortlessly over fabrics. Here, too, sizing helps because it contains a special lubricant that makes the iron glide easily, and thus reduces ironing time. Further, the spray sizing does not add the scratchy stiffness of starch.

Other ironing accessories cut work time, too. A sleeve board, for instance, is great for giving a beautiful increased finish to sleeves. But it is even better for small items, like baby clothes, cuffs and collars, scarfs and handkerchiefs.

While it may be some time before you can toss away your iron and board, you can change your approach to the job immediately. Durable press fabrics, improved laundry equipment and modern sizing make ironing a less wearisome job.

Then, if you still forget to iron that shirt, give up, admit ironing is just not your thing, and bake his favorite pie instead.

Whitston 4-H Club Meets

The Whitston 4 H Club met for its Christmas meeting on December 6 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Stallings. The president, Ray Rountree, called the meeting to order. We said the 4 H pledge and the Pledge of Allegiance.

Darlene and Sharon Felton had the devotion. They read Luke 2:1-20. We then sang "Silent Night" and "Away in a Manger."

The collection was taken. The Secretary called the roll with 18 members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

We elected new officers. Mr. Smith told us about The Achievement Day Program. Our Club and several members of the Club received awards. It was decided to put the Manger Scene up at the Up River Friends Church on Monday Dec. 13.

The gifts were exchanged and we had recreation. Refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

Busy Day Breakfast

Winter mornings are busy mornings for mothers. Dad, the kids and maybe mom, too, are off in different directions — to school and to work. But the importance of a hearty, well balanced breakfast shouldn't be overlooked on even the busiest morning. Breakfast should supply 1/4 to 1/3 of the nutrients (including calories) that the body needs daily to function properly.

Now even on those hurry-scurry mornings you can serve your family one of their favorites — French toast — with a minimum of fuss. Aunt Jemima Frozen French Toast, now available in supermarkets all across the nation, is convenient and homemade good because it's made like homemade.

Enriched bread slices are dipped into a batter of fresh whole eggs and fresh whole milk. The bread is specially formulated and baked to absorb and hold more batter. Each slice is baked on both sides on a griddle 'til it's that familiar, tempting golden brown.

The convenience of this wholesome new food product is unmatched. All you do is heat it in the toaster or oven — so easy any member of the family can prepare it; so quick, it fits into the busiest schedule. When busy mornings loom ahead for you, remember new frozen French toast for breakfast.

NAVAJOS RANGE WIDE

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP) — The elevation on the Navajo Reservation in Arizona, New Mexico and Utah ranges from 4,500 feet to 10,416 feet.

The reservation consists of nearly 16 million acres of land, or about 25,000 square miles, an area almost the size of Vermont, New Hampshire and Massachusetts combined.

SEES HARD TIMES

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — A North Texas State University professor predicts America will face a depression worse than the 1929 stock market crash once the 1972 elections are over and the economic props are pulled out.

Dr. George Christy, writing in the school publication, "The North Texan," said that as the panic spreads.

School Buses Travel 299,954 Miles In County

Sixty two per cent of the students in North Carolina public schools rode the bus to class during the 1970-71 school year, a total of 683,413. This compares with 57 per cent of the students who were transported the year before.

The figure comes from the 1970-71 statistical report prepared by the State Board of Education.

The average school bus transported 67 pupils each day and made 1.69 trips per day. The average bus traveled 37.6 miles each day and the total annual mileage for all buses was 67,942,164.

The cost for this transportation was $21,332,672, including contract transportation and replacement buses.

The average school bus in North Carolina gets just under five and a half miles to the gallon, it costs slightly more than a penny a mile to repair school buses, and 98 per cent of the students who are transported to school travel by school bus.

Dare County operates the smallest number of school buses, 18. The largest number 452, are operated by the Charlotte-Mecklenburg County Schools.

The buses in Graham County travel the fewest miles per year, 126,984. And Charlotte-Mecklenburg buses travel the farthest, 3,760,408 miles a year.

In Perquimans County county-the number of regular school buses operated during the 1970-71 school year was thirty-three. The buses traveled 288,954 miles and carried 1,486 pupils. The total cost to the Perquimans system was $68,961.72, or an average of $46.45 per pupil and 2387 per mile.

The average cost statewide for the 1970-71 school year was $2,059 per bus, $30.69 per pupil, and .3026 per bus mile of operation. These averages do not include contract transportation.
