

You can travel thousands of miles without finding better people than those who live next door.

Santa Claus is going to have to be careful not to run into spaceships on his trip from the pole this year.

We wish you the good cheer of this holiday season. And may the New Year bring to your family success and lasting happiness.

WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS
from The North Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles and The Highway Safety Promotion Division

AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

* MORE THAN A GREETING CARD ****

This holiday message is a reminder that Christmas merriment and New Year happiness do not dwell on streets where accidents live. Yet Christmas is the most dangerous holiday of the year from the standpoint of traffic crashes — worse than Memorial Day, worse than the Fourth of July, worse than Labor Day, in the records of the Nation and the State of North Carolina.

This is why sound safety programs DO, in effect, represent a holiday wish for happiness as meaningful and sincere as any you are likely to receive.

There's just one hitch.

Safety depends more on people themselves than on official programs. So perhaps a few simple safe-driving tips are still in order — to be practiced and passed along to anyone whose happiness is important to us this Christmas:

Watch the weather. Don't be afraid to cancel a trip for good cause; disappointment isn't like death — it doesn't last forever. If you do decide to travel, check your lights, battery, tires, chains, exhaust system; take along flares, extra warm clothing, a full gas tank; and fasten all safety belts. If drinking is in your plans, schedule your drinking and driving to keep them off a collision course!

This season is a fitting occasion for an expression of thanks, to all who help to promote highway safety, from the staff of the

Explained
Two young women were chatting when one noticed something odd and said to the other, "You're wearing your wedding ring on the wrong finger."
"Yes, I know," was the reply, "I married the wrong man."

Ouch!
The editor of a newspaper caught a typographical error that could have led him into Dante's Inferno. The story read that the board of trustees of the town had resigned in a body "because their cuties had been taken over by the County School Board."

good times,
good cheer at Christmas!

Sincere good wishes for the holidays.
May the season be truly joyous to you.
Thank you for all of your patronage.
