Smith-Williams Wedding

Hertford—The marriage of Miss Deborah Mae Smith and W. G. Williams Jr. was solemnized Saturday afternoon at half after four o'clock in Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church. Rev. W. F. Paige, assisted by Dr. R. W. Kicklighter, performed the double-ring ceremony in a candlelight setting of mums and calla lilies and palms.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Smith of Winfall. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Williams of 708 N. Road St.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a chapel length dress of bridal satin and chantilly lace which featured a wedding ring neckline, empire bodice and long bouffant sleeves enhanced with lace. The A line skirt was appliqued with lace down the front and on the scalloped hem. Her cathedral length mantilla was highlighted by lace and attached to a crown of satin. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis, stephanotis and orchids.

Mrs. C. D. White of Hampton, Va., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Miss Gayle Smith of Winfall, sister of the bride, maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Dixon of Hertford, Miss Shelia Gregory of Elizabeth City and Mrs. Diane Mitchell of Dumfries, Va. Junior bridesmaids were Crystal and Valerie Smith of Hertford and Sherry Williams of Elizabeth City.

The attendants wore identical floor length gowns of gold velvet featuring a high neckline and fitted empire bodice with lace trimmed front. Their bouffant veils of illusion were attached to gold velvet bows and golden leaves. They carried bouquets of long stemmed calla lilies tied with bows of moss green velvet with streamers falling to the hem of the gowns.

Mr. Williams was best man for his son. Ushers were Frank K. Williams of Elizabeth City, Bobby Powell of Norfolk, Andy Smith of Winfall and Harvey

Roberts of Shawboro. Mrs. Frank K. Williams of Elizabeth City was mistress of ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Smith chose a light blue double knit coat and dress ensemble accented with white braided, matching accessories and white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Williams wore a light pink coat and dress ensemble of silk with lace trim on the neck and sleeves, matching accessories and white orchid corsage.

A reception was held at Winfall Community Building following the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride changed to a brown double knit coat and dress ensemble with matching accessories and the flowers lifted from her bridal bouquet. The couple will make their home at 802 Maple St., Elizabeth City.

A floating miscellaneous shower was held at the Winfall Community Building given by friends and relatives.

Another shower was given by Mrs. W. G. Williams, Mrs. Frank K. Williams and Mrs. Raynor Pritchard at the home

Wynn-Fork 4-H Meet

The Wynn Fork 4-H Club met January 17th at the Hertford Grammar School. The meeting was called to order by Art Lane, Pledges to the Flags were given. Devotion was given by Connie Baker, followed by the members praying The Lord's Prayer. The roll was called with 30 members present. New and old business was selecting projects for the New Year.

Record books were presented to the members that had already selected their projects. Mrs. Earline White gave the group a demonstration on "Selecting and Eating the Right Foods" for snacks. She stressed that this was very important to the health of the body.

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by Herbert White.
