This Is The Law

By Robert E. Lee
(Sponsored by The Lawyers of North Carolina)

Henry Brown, a wealthy and highly respected man, met Mary Green, an attractive young woman, while attending a religious convention.

Mary informed Henry that she was a church worker and that she had been on but a few dates with men. She appeared very retiring and shy, and Henry had to have numerous dates with her before he could get even a good-night kiss.

She represented to him that she was a virgin and had never used intoxicating beverages or cigarettes. Henry married Mary.

When they attempted to register at a resort hotel on the first night of their honeymoon, the night clerk refused to assign them to a room.

The hotel clerk informed Henry that prostitutes were not permitted to register at the hotel, and that Mary had been thrown out of the hotel as such only a few weeks earlier.

Upon further inquiries, Henry discovered that Mary was well-known among hotel men as a prostitute, that she had been convicted on such charges in the courts several times, and was also an alcoholic.

Mary was definitely not the kind of girl she had represented herself to be. She had never done any church work; in fact, she was not even a church member.

Henry did not continue his honeymoon with Mary. He abandoned her in the lobby of the hotel on the first night of his married life. He has not since seen her. May Henry have his marriage annulled?

No. There does not exist a ground for an annulment of the marriage. Mary is the legal wife of Henry. He must maintain and support her.

Holiday Driving Casualties Could Soar Over 30 Mark

Traffic deaths over the long Fourth of July weekend could run as high as 34, the N. C. State Motor Club predicted. The state will count its toll from 6 p.m. Friday, June 30, through midnight Tuesday, July 4.

Club President Thomas B. Watkins warned that because of the 102 hours of official holiday driving casualties could soar over the 30 mark.

"Many travelers will take off Monday, July 3, too," Watkins pointed out, "and traffic will be heavy, especially in the vacation areas."

Last year there were 29 highway deaths during a 78-hour period. In addition, there were 828 injuries and 1,329 accidents. This year, the N. C. State Motor Club estimates 890 injuries and 1,325 accidents.

"We continue to be optimistic that deaths will be much less than predicted," Watkins said. "This will be a good weekend to drive more carefully than ever and obey all safety regulations."

July 4th deaths in recent years were 28 in 1967; 26 in 1968; 23 in 1969; 22 in 1970; and 29 in 1971.

County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned at Route No. 3, Box 303 Elizabeth City, N. "Prenuptial unchastity" is not a ground for annulment or divorce in North Carolina and most states.

Misrepresentations or concealments as to wealth, occupation, rank, and character are not usually grounds for annulment.

If Mary should subsequent to her marriage engage in prostitution or commit a single act of adultery, her husband would be able to obtain from her an absolute divorce decree on the ground of adultery. This would be a marital offense committed subsequent to the marriage.

Legally speaking, Henry was not justified in abandoning his bride at the beginning of their honeymoon. He cannot after a one year's separation dissolve the marriage by a divorce obtained on the statutory ground of one year's separation if Mary properly contests the action. The separation was occasioned by a willful abandonment on the part of the husband.

Veterans Administration

How to use GI insurance dividends to buy additional paid up life insurance is explained in Veterans Administration pamphlets and forms now being mailed to four million eligible veterans. H. W. Johnson, Director of the Winston-Salem VA Regional Office, said today.

Veterans who have insurance dividends on deposit with the VA will be first to receive the information. Mailings to this group of 650,000 started going out in May and will continue through June.

For the additional 3.3 million holders of policies eligible for the extended coverage, VA mailing will start July 1 and continue for 15 weeks. Most of the policies are for $10,000 before extended coverage is added.

Each eligible policy holder will receive a pamphlet on the new insurance and a form on which he can indicate whether he wants the added coverage.

Those who do not want the extended coverage should return the forms also, Johnson stressed, because the agency will use all the replies to verify file numbers and Social Security numbers on its records.

Johnson explained the amount of the "paid up addition" a veteran can buy depends on the amount of his dividend and his age at the time the dividend is paid. For example, a 51-year-old veteran who receives a $70 dividend can buy $153 in added paid up protection. This is additional insurance coverage, above the face amount of the policy, that will continue through the life of the policy without an increase in premium.

GOOD MARKET

One farm commodity that's enjoying a very favorable market situation is soybeans. Prices have run above $3.50 per bushel this spring with continued good demand anticipated. One reason for the relatively high price is supply. Beans on hand are down 11 percent from last year and the smallest for the time of year since 1968.

POLLINATION

The female flowers of vine crops, such as cucumbers, are receptive to pollination for only a short period of time. In most cases, the flower is open for one day and, if pollination doesn't occur, the flowers wilt and shed off -- no fruit is formed. North Carolina State University scientists say research indicates that most pollination occurs from about 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Honeybees do the work.

Washington Report

By Congressman Walter Jones

Last week the House approved a bill which provides a revolutionary financial relationship with the States and local governments. It was known as the "State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972," and provides for an ultimate expenditure of $29.5 billions of dollars under a most complicated formula based on populations, local tax efforts and per capita income.

The bill is designed to eliminate further tax increases at the local level, or as some seem to think, might even afford tax reduction at the local level. There were many reasons why I could not support this legislation--one, is the inequity of the formula for distribution.

For an example, New York State will receive $17.20 per person, while North Carolina will receive only $7.07. These amounts increase each year for the next five years, and ultimately New York will be receiving $48.21 per person, while North will receive only $26.58.

Even the State of Nevada will receive more per capita than our own State. Another reason for my non-support is that the estimated deficit for next year is already $25 billion, and this adds another $6 billion to that figure. In other words, Congress is appropriating money which the Treasury doesn't have. Already our national debt is $450 billion with anticipated legislation within a few days to increase the debt ceiling. So, it is obvious that sooner or later to act financially responsible, the Congress must impose additional taxes on the citizens of this nation. In summary, this is another trend in making the State and local governmental units more dependent on the Federal Government. On final passage, the North Carolina delegation split as follows: Congressman Henderso, Lennon, Jonas and I voted against the bill, while the other Members voted favorably. It is hoped that those who voted for this massive expenditure, will vote for tax increases when the occasion arises.

In other House action, the Treasury - Postal Service Appropriations were approved, by a vote of 321 to 11 in the amount of approximately $700 million. Ironically, the major portion of this goes to the Postal Service which is now an individual agency which the Administration promised three years ago would by this time be self-supporting.

The House approved two bills affecting disabled veterans--one to provide a 10 per cent increase in the monthly rates to those who are rated 50 per cent disabled or more. The other bill increases the Veterans Administration participation in housing for disabled veterans by increasing the maximum grant from $12,500 to $20,000.

HOUSEHOLD FABRICS

If you want to dress up your house this summer, follow a popular decorating trend -- put fabrics on walls, window shades and all parts of furniture.

Among your choices are pucker prints, printed sheers, chintz, warp knits and silk-like fabrics, observes Wilma Scott, extension house furnishings specialist, North Carolina State University.

Worst

A sign in a Missouri bank reads: "The worst place in the world to live is just beyond your income."

Private Clubs

The Supreme Court has ruled private clubs may limit their membership, even if they have liquor licenses. The vote was 6-3 and the decision relieves many Americans of all races and creeds because to force private clubs to accept anyone who demanded admittance would mean chaos. Worse, it would mean restricting the rights of citizens to form private clubs.

There is obviously no right, enjoyed by any citizen, to force himself into any private club. The legal approach which the Supreme Court has now checked and which was designed to break down membership rules in some fraternal orders, country clubs and other social clubs, was tied to the liquor license, seen as government sanction.

It is true that some have been prevented from joining private clubs by membership rules.
