Pamela Jean Sutton Marries James Robert Barnes

Miss Pamela Jean Sutton became the bride of James Robert Barnes of Fremont at Hertford Baptist Church Sunday, August 13, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. Norman Harris, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in a candlelight setting of white snapdragons, mums, pompoms. The bride used her maternal grandmother's wedding band.

Mrs. Chester Winslow, organist, and the Rev. Norman Harris, soloist, presented the wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Sutton of Hertford.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Barnes of Fremont.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white silk faille featuring a sheer lace bodice embroidered with seed pearls, and long fitted sleeves with fingerlet points. The back was accented by a V-shaped longlette waistline with covered buttons. Tiers of Chantilly lace formed a full skirt ending in a Chapel train. Her Cathedral length Mantilla Veil of French illusion with re-embroidered scallops of Chantilly lace fell from a Juliet Cap. She carried a nosegay of white miniature roses and daisies.

Mrs. Julia Rogers of Plymouth, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her full length gown of lavender violet over taffeta, featured an overlet vest of white embroidered Swiss cotton with long sleeves. She wore lavender and white flowers in her hair and carried 3 long stemmed white carnations with lavender ribbon.

Miss Nannette Ambrose of Hertford was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Lane of Hertford; Miss Shirelene Carter of Morehead City, Mrs. Brenda Kennedy of Fremont, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Anita Paul of Clinton, cousin of the bride; and Mrs. Vivian White of Gloucester Point, Va.

Their gowns and head pieces were identical to that of the matron of honor. The maid of honor carried 3 long stemmed white carnations with lavender ribbon, and each bridesmaid carried 1 long stemmed white carnation with white ribbon.

Miss Beth Rogers of Plymouth, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Wayland Rogers, Jr. of Plymouth, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Ushers were Steve Sutton of Hertford, brother of the bride; Randy Bass, Donnie Hall of Fremont; and Eddy Haywood of Durham.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a dress of aquamarine with matching accessories and a white cymbidium corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of blue knit with white accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Mrs. George White and Mrs. William Tice were mistresses of the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church Social Hall. For a wedding trip to unannounced points, the bride changed into a dress of persimmon and white knit with white accessories.

Upon their return, the couple will reside in Wilmington.

The bride is a graduate of Perquimans High School and received an A.A.S. at College of the Albemarle.
