Craftsmen To Exhibit Handiwork

who enjoy watching gifted eraftsmen at work will have their chance at the Albemarie Craftsman's Fair, Elizabeth City, Sept. 27-80. More than 50 craftsmen and artists from the Albemarie countles will demonstrate crafts rangthe from pottery, decoupage and Swedish weaving to hand painting of china and lamps, eandle=making maerame.

Craftsmen will work in their booths at the National Guard Armory event each weekday from neen to 9 p.m. and on Saturday from neen to

As an added bonus, the teen set, 19 years and younger, will be dis-playing their craft skills in a special youth section.

Another attraction at the Fair will be garments worn by participants. Demonstrators and Hostesses will wear Colonial Costumes. "Craftsmen in the Albemarie area stress quality workmanship," Mrs. Paige Underwood, extension home economies agent, Perquimans County, observes, ''so only high quality work will be exhibited.''

From these crafts, started as hobbies, many persons have developed small businesses and thus increased the economic standards of the families as well as the area, Mrs. Underwood added. - annual fair is ponsored by the Albemarie Craftmen's Quild, Extension Homemakers Clubs in the Albemarie area and the Elizabeth City Chamber f Commerce.

Know Your Social Security

Many people are not making full use of their Medicare in-surance. By failing to submit all their bills and statements from physicians they may lose valuable benefits

The Supplementary Medical Insurance part of Medicare is designed to help pay medical charges There is a $50.00 deductible each calendar year after which Medicare pays 80 percent of the allowable charges for doctors services and other medical expenses. Your Speint Security Office will be glad to assist anyone with Medicare claim, and this can generally be handled by phone. Call 338 3931 for assistance with Medicare claims.

Demember, there is still time this year to file a Medicare claim for allowable expenses incurred last year. The Flizabeth City Social Security Office is located at 401
