

Miss Brinn Weds Maurice Leland Bunch III

The wedding of Miss Claudia Lee Brinn and Maurice Leland Bunch III, was solemnized Saturday afternoon, October 7th, at 3:00 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church in Hertford. The Rev. Milton T. Mann performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of candles, white flowers and palms. Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Chester Winslow, organist and Mr. Bobby Jones, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Claude Brinn of Hertford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Leland Bunch, Jr. of Garner.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of peau de soie and aulle satin over taffeta in bridal white. Richly embellished with re-embroidered Alencon lace and Venice lace braid touches with sun pearls, the gown featured a high illusion neckline and modified bishop sleeves. The attached full train fell from a satin bow at the back. It was trimmed in a border of satin and lace. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion cascaded from a camelot cap of Venice lace outlined with sun pearls. She carried a bouquet of brides roses and stephanotis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brinn chose a petal pink dress of silk and worsted with full length sleeves and a high neck. The empire waist line was embellished with qui pure lace. Her accessories matched. Her flowers were pink baby orchards.

Mrs. Bunch, the groom's mother, wore a sea blue dress of Alaskine. Venetian lace at the neck line was carried out in the full length sleeves. Her accessories matched and her flowers were yellow baby orchards.

Miss Beth Brinn of Hertford was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Angela Baker, Miss Susan Harrell, Mrs. Georgia Stallings of Hertford, and Mrs. Missouri Saunders of Raleigh. They wore floor length gowns of apple green and white of chiffon over taffeta featuring fitted bodices, full sleeves and wide ruffled hemlines. Their headpieces were bandeaus of lace with velvet ribbons. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of roses and fugi mums and the bridesmaids carried nosegays of fugi mums and pompons. Mr. Bunch was best man for his son. Ushers were Richard Bunch of Garner, brother of the bridegroom, John Bunch of Edenton, cousin of the bridegroom, Dennis Ennis of Garner and Mike Langston of Greenville.

Mrs. J.L. Liberty of Newport News, Mrs. Katherine Ward and Mrs. Bea Jessup of Hertford were mistresses of ceremony.

A reception was held at the Church Fellowship Hall immediately following the wedding. For a wedding trip to unannounced parts, the bride changed to a green double knit belted dress with matching accessories. The couple will make their home in Newport News, Virginia.

A kitchen shower was given by Mrs. H.C. Stokes, Mrs. Charles White, Mrs. Becky White, Mrs. Joe Nowell, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Will Simmerson, Mrs. Jesse Harris, and Mrs. Jarvis Ward at the home of Mrs. Stokes.

The bridal luncheon was given at Boswells in Edenton by Mrs. Marion Swindell, Mrs. Bill Cox, Mrs. R.M. Thompson, Mrs. Kenneth Bateman, Mrs. J.L. Liberty, Mrs. Francis Nixon, Miss Susan Harrell and Mrs. Georgia Stallings entertained at an open house at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.M. Harrell.

The bridegroom's parents entertained at a rehearsal dinner at Boswells Restaurant, in Edenton.

Mrs. Kathrine Ward, Mrs. John Broughton, Mrs. George Baker and Mrs. Frank Jessup hosted a cake cutting at the home of Mrs. T.B. Sumner.

Out of town guests for the wedding were: Mr. & Mrs. J.L. Liberty, Jr. and family, Mrs. E.M. McDermott, Jr. and Pam, Jack Thompson, Mr. & Mrs.

Card Of Thanks

We would like to thank all of our dear friends who remembered us during our recent bereavement with prayers, cards, visits, flowers, food and all other acts of kindness shown us.

May God bless each of you. Sincerely
The Family of Raymond Lassiter

Card Of Thanks

I would like to express my appreciation for all the kind ways I was remembered during my stay in the Albemarle Hospital and since my return home.

For the prayers, visits, cards, flowers, gifts, food and other acts of kindness I am most grateful.
Mrs. Norma Bunch

Who stands with — JESSE HELMS...

"Somewhere, somehow, the public must learn that it's of small importance whether a candidate looks and sounds like one of the Kennedy brothers, or whether he has charisma or glamour. The paramount thing is whether a man believes in the principles of America, and whether he is willing to stand up for them, win or lose."
November 3, 1970

| VIETNAM "The war in Vietnam has been, from the beginning, a tragic study in contradictions, a seemingly endless road leading to an incomprehensible nowhere. It is, in the first place, not even a declared war, and in the second place, a war which the United States has too often made clear that we do not intend to win in the accepted military sense. No wonder, then, that there now exists an increasing bewilderment at home, a growing sense of frustration, and a frightening discord as to our national purpose."February 27, 1968 | NATIONAL DEFENSE "National defense is indeed expensive—and so is an adequate police force... Surely any rational citizen can understand that it is better to have it and not need it, than to need it and not have it. The difference is a matter of survival itself."July 17, 1969  |
| POLLUTION "The litter along the roadside, the trash that is increasingly infesting society, will not clean itself up. We are on the threshold of suffocating in the swamps of our own garbage."April 14, 1971  | FARM SUPPORTS "As for our farmers—who produce our food, fibres, tobacco and other products—society simply cannot in good conscience, or good sense, turn its back on those who labor to feed and clothe all the rest of us."August 5, 1972   |
