

WEEKLY RECIPE

Sarah Anne Sheridan
One of my fondest memories of our sojourn in Europe was that occasional box from home containing cookies, candy, a jar of homemade preserves and other good things reminiscent of home. Many readers have children and relatives overseas who, too, would enjoy a taste of something from home. Here, then, is a delicious cookie that travels well.

Fruit-N-Spice Cookies

- 1 c soft shortening
- 2 c brown sugar, packed
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 c cold coffee
- 3/4 c sifted flour
- 1 t soda
- 1 t salt
- 1 t nutmeg
- 1 t cinnamon
- 2 1/2 c halves seeded raisins
- 1 1/4 c broken nuts

Mix well the shortening, sugar, and eggs. Stir in the coffee and add the next five ingredients which have been sifted together. Mix well. Then add the raisins and nuts. Chill for 1 hour, then drop by rounded teaspoonfuls 2 inches apart on lightly greased cookie sheet. Bake at 400 degrees until set, about 10 minutes. This makes about 6 dozen cookies.

Group Drainage Project

The above photo shows a section of the New Hope Group ditch. A group of 13 farmers in the New Hope Community of Perquimans County had this ditch constructed during the past winter. They received assistance on construction through a pooling agreement with the local ASC office.

The ditch was surveyed, designed and checked by Soil Conservation Service Technicians working with the Albemarle Soil and Water Conservation District.

The spoil from the ditch was placed close to the ditch and shaped for a travelway. The sides slopes of ditch and the travelway were limed, fertilized, and seeded to fescue grass. Inlet pipes were installed under the travelway at various places. The travelway will be used in maintaining the ditch and the fescue grass will prevent erosion and provide food for wildlife. This ditch will provide an outlet for drainage on approximately 2000 acres of land.

Teachers Of The Year Are Named At Raleigh Luncheon

Fourteen Regional Teachers of the Year were announced today at a luncheon in Raleigh. One of the 14 will be named North Carolina's Teacher of the Year at the November 2 meeting of the State Board of Education.

The regional representatives were selected by Association of Classroom Teachers-NCAE districts. A nine member committee will interview the Regional Teachers of the Year today and two of them will be selected for consideration as the North Carolina Teacher of the Year. The finalists will be observed in their classrooms during National Education Week, October 23-28, by a committee from the Learning Institute of North Carolina.

The current Teacher of the Year, Jay Rogers of Durham High School, went on to become the 1972 National Teacher of the Year.

The Regional Teachers of the Year include Mary Ann Oates of Southern Wayne Senior High School; Walter Plemmer, Jr., of North Edgecomb High School; Patricia Faye Gibson of Newton-Conover Junior High; Noah Cleveland Harris, Jr., of Northeast Junior High in High Point; Michael Glenn Hood of Buies Creek High School;

Marjalene Thomas of Central Elementary School in Elizabeth City; Judy Mavin Gilbert of S. Ray Lowder Elementary School in Lincolnton; Sarah Spivey of North Ridge Elementary School in Wake County; Carl Leo Hill of Union Pines High School in Moore County; Rudolph Boone, Sr., of Carver High School in Winston-Salem; Forsyth; Anne Brooks McGowan of Tabor City; Mrs. Gretchen Briggs of E.M. Holt School in Alamance County; Mrs. Frances Ward Black of Concord Senior High School; and Connie Cathey of Claxton Elementary School in Asheville.

"These are all fine teachers," said State School Superintendent Craig Phillips. "Selecting the Teacher of the Year from among this extremely well qualified group will be a difficult decision," he added. Dr. Phillips stresses that the search for Teacher of the Year is not for the 'best teacher' but for one who exemplifies the finest in the teaching profession.

National Teacher of the Year Jay Rogers was honored at the White House after his selection. He has been featured in several national magazine articles and has appeared often on nationwide television and as a speaker at conferences. Rogers was unable to attend today's luncheon because he was out the state for a Teacher of the Year appearance.

The Teacher of the Year award program is sponsored by the Encyclopaedia Britannica Companies, the Council of Chief State School Officers, and the Ladies Home Journal.

Human Repair

Dr. Russel Lawson, of the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland, has successfully removed the kidneys of twopatients, repaired and replaced them in the patients' bodies successfully.

Dr. Lawson told the American College of Surgeons recently, in reporting on the successful repair-operations, that other organs of the body could be similarly repaired and reimplanted—such as the heart and liver, for examples.

Reimplanting patients' own repaired organs avoids the problem of the body's rejection of alien organs, a problem which so often has plagued heart-transplant operations.

"LESS MONEY? Sure... and it doesn't mean less house either... let me explain why..."

The manager pictured above, is Mr. Roscoe Crane, of Jim Walter Homes in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Unless you live in this immediate area, chances are you'll never meet Roscoe. But, if you own property and would like to build on it, there is a man just like him that you should meet...a man that can explain to you why you can build now, despite rising costs, for less money and still have all the home you've always wanted. This man, the man we want you to meet, is your local Jim Walter Homes representative. And then, after you've talked, you'll find out how easily you can save hundreds, even thousands of dollars on your new home.

necessities if you want to...just the basic shell home, completely finished outside, unfinished inside...and then finish the rest yourself. Just imagine how much money this would cost from your finished cost...if you did all of the inside. But, it's not necessary for you to do this much. Do as much as you want to. Do a little or a lot. It's up to you. We'll stop at almost any stage of inside completion that you tell us to. The point is, whatever you can do will save you money.

But, doing some of the work yourself isn't the only way you'll save money when Jim Walter builds for you. A comparison will prove the cost of our homes is low for whatever you buy.
