Training As Nursing Aides

the college's Project COA, was taught by a registered nurse. The students in the class were trained to work as nursing aides on private duty at the hospital, with a patient at home or in a nursing home.

R.L. Stevenson Named Farm-City Week Chairman

R.L. Stevenson, EVP Peoples Bank has been named Perquimans County Farm-City Week chairman for the 1972 observance of Farm-City Week. The appointment was announced by James B. Hunt, Jr. of Wilson, state Farm-City Week Chairman.

Serving with Mr. Stevenson as co-chairman for the county committee is Richard H. Bryant, County Extension Chairman.

Farm-City Week will be observed across the nation on November 17-23, ending on Thanksgiving Day. The purpose of the event is to help create a better understanding between rural and urban people.

In appointing county Farm-City Week chairmen, Hunt stated that North Carolina is fortunate to have a fine relationship between urban and rural citizens. "Farm-City Week can help to maintain and strengthen this relationship," he said.

Miss Margaret Decker of Asheville is serving with Hunt as state vice-chairman.

This will be the eighteenth annual observance of Farm-City Week. Last year's observance, according to final reports received at national headquarters, involved the active participation of more than 15,000 communities in the U.S. and Canada.

Farm-City Week is under the direction of a National Farm-City Council, Inc. headed by Dr. Homer C. Folks, Assoc. Dean, College of Agriculture, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri. Kiwanis International will serve as coordinating agency for Farm-City Week and act as headquarters for the National Farm-City Council for the eighteenth consecutive year.

The National Farm-City Council is composed of representatives from more than 150 major farm organizations, industries, businesses, associations, governmental agencies, educational institutions, and church groups. A the inception of the event, Farm-City Week has won the Freedoms Foundation's Distinguished Service Award, which carries the same distinction in the community service field as does the famed "Oscar" in the motion picture industry and the "Emmy" in the television field, and the Silver Anvil Award from the Public Relations Society of America for being the best community relations program of 1966.

L.W. Sayland

Marion Swindell of Swindell Funeral Home announces that L. Wayne Sayland has joined his firm as funeral director and embalmer.

Sayland, 21, graduated with honors in September from the Gupton Jones College of Mortuary Science in Atlanta, Ga., where he was a member of Pi Sigma Eta, the professional funeral directors' fraternity. He received his funeral director's license in April 1972 and his embalmer's license this month after passing the state and national board exams.

A native of Pitt County, he is the son of Mrs. Marvin A. Sayland of Asheboro and the late Mr. Sayland. He graduated from Ayden High School and began serving his apprenticeship with the Farmer Funeral Service in 1969.

Since arriving in Hertford, Sayland who was active in the scouting program in Ayden has begun assisting the local scout leaders. He is an Episcopalian. Swindell in making this announcement states that he is proud to have a person of Sayland's integrity and interest and concern in the funeral profession with him.

ARPDC Endorses Four Year School

A four year medical school to be located at East Carolina University was endorsed at the regular meeting of the Albemarle Regional Planning and Development Commission in formal session Thursday afternoon. The presentation was made in behalf of Plymouth Mayor William Flowers. Flowers is currently serving as Chairman of a North Eastern North Carolina Citizens' Committee to secure the four year school. Flowers said that the medical school would greatly enhance the possibility of physicians locating in the Region. The staff of ARPDC was instructed to work with the Citizens' Committee in their efforts to accomplish this cause.

ARPDC activity report indicated the efforts of the Commission within the Region which was directed toward development. This included: an application for a Water System at Ocracoke, a Neighborhood Facility at Stumpy Point and Hatteras, the successful funding of Columbia's Sewer System and Hertford's Water System. Also, assistance is being rendered in obtaining funds for the restoration of Newbold-White House in Perquimans County, the Outer Banks Water System, the Plymouth Airport and the Albemarle Regional Library in Elizabeth City.

The Albemarle Council on Aging reported gross sales by Senior Citizens in the amount of $2,000 at the recent Senior Citizens' Bazaar held at Southgate Mall in Elizabeth City.

The Commission went on record in form of a resolution requesting the Norfolk-Carolina Telephone Company to continue its efforts to include all of Gates County in the six-county Metro-Telephone System.

Wesley Cullipher, Director of ARPDC reported that this Region has been selected by the State Planning Department as one of the five Regions in the state for a water and sewer study in this fiscal year.

The meeting was presided over by Chairman William B. Gardner and was held in the office of the Regional Commission in Edenton.
