

Irons-Harrell Wedding

The marriage of Miss Mary Susan Harrell and Cary Frederick Irons III was solemnized recently in the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. F. Belton Joyner Jr. and the Rev. Milton T. Mann performed the double ring ceremony in a candlelight setting of white snapdragons, red roses and palms. Wedding music was presented by Miss Caroline Wright, organist and George M. Seymour, soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Manning Harrell Jr. of Hertford. The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Irons of Greenville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight gown of tissue faille. The high neck and empire waist featured a stenciled lace yoke and leg-of-mutton sleeves and a wide ruffled lace border on the attached train. Her chapel length veil of illusion flowed from a cloche of stenciled lace and hand crocheted Belgium lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of red American beauty roses.

Honor attendants were Miss Cathy Simmons of Hickory and Miss Pamela Walton of Raleigh. Bridesmaids were Miss Rose Auman of Jacksonville, Mrs. Maurice L. Bunch of Newport News, Va., Mrs. John Dowd of Greenville, Mrs. Thomas G. Irons of Daly City, Cal., Mrs. Ben Irons of Chapel Hill and Mrs. C.J. Stallings of Belvidere.

The honor attendants and bridesmaids wore gowns with candlelight crepe blouses ruffled at the high neck and sleeves and Old Glory red velvet skirts bordered with a deep gathered ruffle and matching cummerbunds. They wore sprigs of holly in their hair and carried bouquets of holly and ivy.

Amy Chappell was flower girl. Dr. Irons was best man for his son. Ushers were Al Gurganus of Greenville, Charlie Harrell III and Chris Harrell, both of Hertford, Dr. Thomas G. Irons of Daly City, Ben Irons of Chapel Hill, The Rev. Thomas Loftis of Fayetteville and John Weldon of Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. George Fields, Mrs. Albert Taylor and Mrs. Julian White were mistresses of ceremony.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Harrell chose a coat and dress ensemble in pale pink with beaded trim, matching accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Iron wore an aqua dress with long sleeves accented by a gold belt, harmonizing accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Roy S. Chappell, grandmother of the bride, wore a royal blue dress with harmonizing accessories and corsage of red carnations.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall following the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to Atlanta, the bride changed to a wool

Mrs. Cary Frederick Irons

dress in light blue with matching short jacket, navy accessories and the roses lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro where she was a member of the Golden Chain, Reynolds scholar and elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. Iron is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity, Morehead scholar and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He will enter medical school in the fall.

A bridal shower was given by Miss Cathy Simmons at Reynolds Dormitory at UNC-G. Mrs. John Dowd entertained at a coke party in Edenton.

Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Barnes and Miss Sandie Barnes entertained at dinner in Greensboro.

Another dinner party was given by Mrs. Dilbon Young, Mrs. Kenneth Bateman, Mrs. Claude Brinn, Mrs. Marion Swindell and Mrs. George Winslow at the Young home in Hertford.

Mrs. George Fields, Mrs. Julian White and Mrs. Elbert Taylor entertained at a luncheon at the Fields home in Hertford.

The bridesmaids luncheon was given by Mrs. W.A. Gray at the Vicki Villa Restaurant in Elizabeth City.

The couple was honored at a rehearsal dinner at the Elizabeth City Golf Club given by the bridegroom's parents, Dr. Isa C. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood Lassiter.

Urges Savings Bonds Purchases

An unusual opportunity to convert 1972 Federal income tax refund checks into U.S. Savings Bonds was announced today by Bland W. Worley, State Chairman for the Bond Program, and President, The Wachovia Corporation.

"The Treasury is estimating that this could be the largest tax-refund year in history," Mr. Worley said, "with $22 billion going to some 58 million recipients - an average of nearly $400 apiece."

"The U.S. Savings Bonds Division, through the cooperation of the Internal Revenue Service, provides immediate opportunity for those recipients to convert their refund checks into Bonds. A special Bond Application Form is being mailed, with instructions, along with each tax-refund check. Persons wishing to turn their refund checks into Bonds, need only fill out the form, taking it along with the check to the nearest Savings Bonds issuing agent - most likely the bank. There, Bonds in the specified amounts will be issued promptly.

"This timely opportunity," Mr. Worley continued, "permits individuals to buy Bonds in the amounts desired, in a manner convenient for both the purchaser and the issuing agent. We encourage the citizens of North Carolina to use their tax refunds to add to their future security.
