Aid In Fund Drive

Despite gas shortage and sickness - 4-H'ers from the Wynnfork 4-H Club and the Roadrunner 4-H Club aided the county in its Heart Fund Drive. The group met Sunday afternoon at the County Extension Office and dispersed over the entire county to solicit contributions for the Heart Fund. The group met with excellent co-operation from the county, collecting a total of $330.

The Bank of North Carolina, N.A. awarded a cash prize of $25 to the car collecting the most money. The prize was won by Clay Roberts son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts and Richard Rogerson son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogerson who collected a total of $9.75 alone.

The Heart Fund Drive will continue Saturday, March 2, with an auction to be held at the Perquimans County Horse and Pony Club. Prizes have been donated from area merchants and individuals in an effort to add to the amount already raised for the Heart Fund.
