Act Early

Many people, both old and young, are joining forces in an effort to save one of the most impressive sights on the East Coast from violation by man.

We're talking about Jockey's Ridge, down Nags Head way, and the fund raising campaign initiated by the People to Preserve Jockey's Ridge. You'll be hearing a lot more about it as time goes on.

A documentary film, which will be shown on national television, is to be previewed near the site late this month. When the appeal for funds is made locally, we hope you will act early to preserve this natural wonder.
