Harris, Isenhour Sawyer, Reed Are Married

The wedding of Miss Beth Harris and Mr. Robert McFarland Isenhour was solemnized Saturday, June 29 at 4 p.m. at the University United Methodist Church, Chapel Hill. The Rev. Charles M. Smith performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of white altar flowers, greenery and candlelight. Wedding music was played by Dr. Eleanor McCrickard, church organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Harris of Hertford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James W. Goldsmith of Washington, N.C.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional gown of white imported organza. The empire bodice was styled with a high-Victorian neckline and cap sleeves. The A-line skirt, which flowed to a semi-Cathedral train, was bordered with peau d'ange lace. Peau d'ange lace and cotton Benise lace were applied to the entire gown. Her veil was a mantilla of Brussels lace, purchased by the bride when she toured Europe. The bridal bouquet consisted of white roses, baby's breath and blue daisies.

Mrs. George M. Kelly, III of Virginia Beach was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Bob Garner of Greensboro and Carla Heaton of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Dennis Hyatt, the groom's sister of High Point; Mrs. Curtis Lumsden of Va. Beach; Mrs. Thomas Palmer of Alexander; Miss Sherry Wheelock of Raleigh; and Misses Mary Brinkley Ward and Ruthie Ward, cousins of the bride of Hertford.

All of the attendants wore gowns of blue and white gingham knit, styled with high ruffled neckline and matching shawls, edged with ruffling. The skirt ended with a deep ruffle. They wore white horsehair hats, trimmed with blue grosgrain ribbon to match the dresses. They carried white wicker baskets filled with blue and white daisies and baby's breath.

James W. Goldsmith, father of the groom, was best man. Ushers were: Clark L. Harris, the bride's brother of Hertford; Laurence Byrne, Jr. of Medford, N.J.; Robert Diethorn of Lemoyne, Pa.; Frederick Harwell, Jr. of New York City; Clinton S. Laird III of Wilmington, Del.; Gordon D. S. Peterson of Westfield, N.J.; Edwin Stoddard of Chapel Hill, and James W. Walter of Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. Rebecca Herring Clark of Wilson, aunt of the bride, was mistress of ceremony. Mother of the bride wore a floor-length gown of floral chiffon in hues of blue, lilac, rose and yellow. It was made shirt waist style with long full sleeves. She wore a crescent of blue and lilac summer flowers in her hair.

The bridegroom's mother wore a long gown of samaron rose georgette crepe, styled with high-rise waistline, long full sleeves, and self-covered buttons. She wore a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. James B. Laughlin, grandmother of the groom from Marion, wore a long, beige gown and a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the Carolina Inn immediately following the ceremony.

For the wedding trip, the bride wore a three-piece pantsuit of green and white polka dot seersucker with matching accessories. The couple will make their home in Paris, France where the groom will handle European commitments for his company.

The bride is a 1966 graduate of Perquimans County High School and attended St. Mary's Junior College in Raleigh, and holds a B.S. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. For the past three years, she has been a special education teacher at Perquimans County High School.

The groom graduated from high school in Washington, N.C. He also is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he was a member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He served with the Air Force in Viet Nam. He is now vice-president of a management consulting firm, with headquarters in New York City.

Following the rehearsal on Friday evening, the bridegroom's parents entertained the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a dinner party at the Villa Teo in Chapel Hill.
