COLLEGE STUDENTS PREPARE TO LEAVE: With advent of September, the boys and girls of Perquimans along with the youth of all over the country, begin to leave for the various colleges and universities, and a number of Perquimans young folks who teach also go away for the winter. Miss Patricia Stephens will enter Atlantic Christian College at Wilson, this fall. At least five Hertford girls are going to attend East Carolina Teachers College at Greenville. They are Misses Joyce Harrell, Prue Newby, Carolyn and Frances Lamb and Jean White. Misses Sara Brinn and Kay Broughton will return to Duke University, as will also Robert Hollowell and Bill Jessup. Herman Ward,

Guy Newby, Miss Louise Payne and Miss Eloise Broughton will attend the University of North Carolina. Claude Brinn, Ben Robinson and Henry Stokes will matriculate at Louisville College. James Robert White and Wrightson Jackson will return to Wake Forest for their third year. Jesse Lee Harris will also enter Wake Forest this term. Tim Brinn, who is a first alternate for an appointment at West Point, has gone to Marion Military Institute, at Marion, Ala. Miss Ruth Elliott returns to N.C.C.W. at Greensboro, and Miss Ruth Nachman and Miss Mary Wood Koonce enter the Woman's College of the University. Carl Britt is at Spartanburg Textile School, at Spartanburg, S.C. Dick Payne returns to State College at Raleigh, N.C. Rob Morris will be a student at Fork Union Military Academy, in Virginia. Jack Jessup will attend Oak Ridge Military Academy.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS DANCE MONDAY NIGHT: The dance given at the Community House in Hertford on Monday evening by Lucius Blanchard, Johnnie Broughton and Willie Ainsley, was attended by a large number of the young people of the town, who danced to music furnished by an itinerant musician known as "The One Man Band".

KNOCK, KNOCK: Knock, Knock! Who's There? Canoe. Canoe, who? Canoe row a boat? And speaking of canoes, Dan Smith and Wallace Weston, of Belvidere, paddled a canoe from Belvidere to Hertford, a distance of sixteen miles, in three hours. Canoe?

BITS O' PHILOSOPHY: THINK ALONG RIGHT LINE, MEN WANTED: A man who can find things to be done without the help of a manager and three assistants. A man who gets to work on time in the morning and does not imperil the lives of others in an attempt to be first out of the office at night. A man who is neat in appearance and does not sulk for an hour's overtime in emergencies. A man who listens carefully when he is spoken to and asks only enough questions to insure the accurate carrying out of instructions. A man who moves quickly and makes as little noise as possible about it. A man who does not pity himself for having to work. A man who is cheerful, courteous to everyone and determines to "make good". This man is wanted everywhere. Age or lack of experience do not count. There isn't any limit, except his own ambition, to the number or size of the job he can get. He is wanted in every business.

TO THE EDITOR
 The Hertford Lions Club may well take pride in their sponsorship of Boy Scout Troop 155. The Troop, under the able guidance of Bobby Holland and Seymour Chappell, has kept quite busy in scouting related functions these past few months, highlighted by the Court of Honor, held last Saturday at the home of Tommy Harrell. The Ceremony, complete with hot dogs, hamburgers and all manner of good things culminated this summer season's activities.

Among these many activities were the Tidewater Council Camporee, during which the troop earned two blue ribbons. Eight of the troopers were elected and inducted into the Order of the Arrow, an honor camping organization; this during the "ordeal" at Camp Perry. The troop visited Wilmington and the battleship U.S.S. North Carolina, as well as spent a one week jaunt at Camp Pipsico, in Surry County, Virginia.

During the Court of Honor, the following awards were given: 69 Merit Badges, 17 advancements in Rank, as well as Palms for two of the troop's Eagle Scouts.

For a twenty member troop, that is reason for the sponsors, parents, as well as the troopers themselves to be proud to be a part of 155.
