considered in selecting interim areas of environmental concern.

SUBJECT:
The Secretary of Natural and Economic Resources, pursuant to G.S. 113A-115(a)(1), proposes that the public consider the relative merits of designating the following land and water areas located in Camden, Chowan, Gates, Hertford, Pasquotank, and Perquimans Counties as interim areas of environmental concern.

(1) Coastal wetland defined in G.S. 113-220(a);
(2) Estuarine waters as defined in G.S. 113-229(n)(2);
(3) Shoreline, ocean beaches, and sand dunes along the Outer Banks, that is the Outer Banks as defined in G.S. 104B-13(1);
(4) Existing federal and state owned wildlife refuges, preserves or management areas;
(5) Existing and proposed national and state parks and forests;
(6) Historic places that are listed or have been approved for listing by the North Carolina Historical Commission in the National Register of Historical Places, Natural Landmarks, and National Historical Landmarks.

The public is also invited to comment upon any additional areas of environmental concern for these counties as set forth in statute (G.S. 113A-113).

INFORMATION:
Copies of a description of proposed interim areas of environmental concern within Camden, Chowan, Gates, Hertford, Pasquotank, and Perquimans Counties, including a map of proposed areas of environmental concern and relevant statutory references will be available for public inspection at the following locations:
Camden County Courthouse; Highway 343; Camden, North Carolina
