

Cupid's Fling' Is Successful

Love Is A Many Splendored Thing

CUPIDS AND HEARTS — The theme of the first annual Valentine's Dance, sponsored by the Perquimans County Jaycettes, was "Cupid's Fling." Snug Harbor Club House, the site of the dance, was transformed into a red and white dream with fanciful cupids and hearts. This fireplace mantle display was done by Brenda Hollowell, decoration co-chairperson.

The Perquimans County Jaycettes undertook their first major sole project Saturday night when that organization sponsored a Valentine's Dance with the theme, "Cupid's Fling." Up to this point, other projects and activities undertaken by the club have been of the Jaycee assistance type.

The dance was held at the Snug Harbor Club House and advance tickets for eighty couples were sold.

It is hoped that the Valentine's Dance will become an annual event. If the response to the first is any indication, it will.

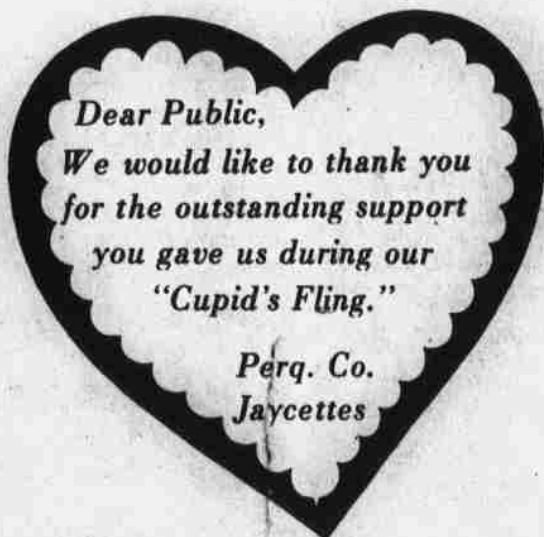

The entire club put in many hours and volunteered much time to make Cupid's Fling a success. Girls in charge of special committees were as follows: overall chairman, Louise Ward and co-chairman Anna Hurdle; seating arrangements, Kay Winslow; food chairman, Ann Winslow and co-chairman Sharon Tunnell; tickets, Sylvia Barnes and Jonetta Long; decorations chairman Kathy Newbern and co-chairman Brenda Hollowell; Clean-up chairman, Cathy Wilder.

Music was provided by "Solid Gold." During an intermission, four boxes of Valentine's candy were auctioned. Chairman for this was Betty Hare.

The "Cupid's Fling" is now just a memory, but one that will remain in the minds of those who attended for some while.

FOOD GALORE — The food table was well stocked for the Saturday night Cupid's Fling. As well as being pleasing to the eye, the appetizers were also pleasing to the taste and the spot seemed to be a popular one for the evening. Jaycette Ann Winslow served as food chairman for the refreshments donated by the girls.

THEY COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT — The eighty some couples attending the Jaycettes' Cupid's Fling showed no hesitation when the music began. A good time was had by the young and the young at heart.

EVERYBODY HAD A GOOD TIME — Good food, fine music, and excellent company were just a few of the many elements which combined to make the first annual Valentine's Dance a successful event. Those who attended are already waiting for next year.
