BASKETBALL DOUBLE-HEADER — Men who dress in women's clothes could easily qualify for a night in the poke. Take seven such men, toss in a midget to boot, and you apparently have a king-size problem for the local head-shrinker. But that's not the case with the CALIFORNIA CUTIES, a fun-loving band of athletes who actually make their living dressing in women's clothes. The CUTIES do more than that, however. They also play basketball...and rank as one of the top touring teams in the country. Now in their eighth season, the CUTIES will be in Hertford on Wed., February 19 for a game against the Maple Bombers of Currituck. The contest starts at 7 p.m. at Perquimans High School. It's being sponsored by Perquimans High School Guidance Club. Although the name of the game is comedy, the CUTIES are deep enough in talent to win the large majority of their outing. But you couldn't tell it by looking at the roster, which includes such unlikely basketball names as Dottie Dribble, Leaping Lena, Dinah Sore, Hefty Helen, Dump Dora, Rebound Ruby and Scaggie Maggie. Woodard's Pharmacy will play Radio Station WGAI in a preliminary game.

Schools Initiate Security System

Due to the recent problem of frequent break-ins of county schools, school officials have hired night watchmen who will serve in all schools throughout the county. Effective immediately, these experienced watchmen will be on duty seven nights per week to provide surveillance both inside and outside of each school building. These watchmen will have a communications tie-in with the Hertford Police Department and the Perquimans County Sheriff's Department. Their duty will be to report any unusual conditions on persons in the vicinity of the schools without authorization. Pat Harrell, assistant superintendent of county schools, commented concerning the break-ins and the hiring of night watchmen, "We do have break-ins and people don't realize how costly it is. We've had to replace broken windows as well as stolen equipment. It's a nuisance and it requires quite a bit of time and financial resources to compensate for the break-ins we're having." Harrell pointed out that no money is kept in the county's school buildings overnight.
