CHOWAN 9 ALBEMARLE 3

The Chowan Academy Chargers added another victory to its undefeated baseball season by defeating Albemarle Academy of Elizabeth City 9-3 in a seven inning thriller.

All of Chowan's runs came in the first four innings of play. In the first inning Elbert Layton scored from second on a double by Lonnie Bunch to left field. While in the second inning Gary Smith scored on a single by Jeffrey White who sored from third off a sacrifice fly by Layton, then Art Lane went home when a pick of play by Albemarle's Pitcher was high allowing Lane to score. The highlight of Chowan's scoring came in the third inning when Mike Tynch sent Godfrey's ball sailing over the fence for a two run homer. Other scores for Chowan came from Gary Smith, Dennis Layton, and Howard Williams.

Albemarle showed life in the third and seventh innings trying hard to fight back against the Chargers. Ram Haskett for Albemarle hit a homer in the seventh which put a spark in the Colts bats, and caused their
