Jaycettes Hold General Store

The Perquimans County Jaycettes sponsored a General Store on October 4 with the proceeds going to the Perquimans County Marching Unit. A goal of $200 was surpassed and a check will soon be presented to the unit.

Held at the Episcopal Parish House in Hertford, items for sale included used clothing, homemade arts and crafts, baked goods, cokes and used furniture. The members of the marching unit manned a babysitting service for shopping mothers.

Members of the Belvidere-Chappell Hill Fire Department Ladies' Auxiliary also brought several crafts to sell which were left from their bazaar, generously donating some of the proceeds to the marching unit.

The Jaycettes received much help from members of the marching unit and the unit's parents club.

PRACTICING — Eric Skinner (preparing to jump) and Chris Mansfield, students at Hertford Grammar School practice the standing broadjump in preparation for the upcoming Jaycee Youth Day to be held Saturday.

Youth Day

The Perquimans County Jaycees are having its Youth Day Saturday Oct. 25 at the Perquimans High School Football Field. All young men between the ages of 8-17 are invited to participate in this event. There will be 3 age groups for competition (8-11; 12-14; and 15-17). Registration will be at 12:30. Certificates will be given to each winner in each division. The overall winner in each age group will be given a basketball. Activities will include basketball, football, and baseball activities and tract events. All boys are urged to come on out to the football field and enjoy the fun.

Whereas, the Business and Professional Women's Club is a club for all business and professional women, the group is small in number, and, Whereas, a large part of the population in Perquimans County are working women, and, Whereas, their goals are to improve and to beautify our town and community, and, Whereas, they sponsor the Candy Strippers, the Health Careers Club, and the Loan Closet, to aid all in need;

Resolution

I, Bill Cox, Mayor, Town of Hertford, N.C., hereby proclaim observance of the week of October 19-26 as National Business Women's Week, and in so doing, recognize the Hertford Business and Professional Women's Club.

The members of the Hertford Business and Professional Women's Club would like to recognize all working women and to invite and encourage them to join their organization and to join in their recognition of National Business Women's Week.

By DANNY MEADS Last year the Student Council was reinstated at PCHS. They brought many activities back to the school. One such activity was Homecoming.

This year Homecoming proves to be just as exciting as those of past years. October 20-24 has been designated as Homecoming Week. The Student Council activities committee planned the following activities for each day of the week. On Monday, the Student Council sponsored Crazy Day. Students mismatched socks, shoes, earrings, clothes, etc. Tuesday, the Student Council sponsored Hat Day. Students tried to find the most unusual hats possible. For the second year, the Annual Staff sponsored Fifties Day. Students tried to dress as near like teenagers of the fifties as possible. On Thursday, Spirit Day was held. Everyone donned the school colors, black and gold.

On Friday, Homecoming will reach its climax. At 4 p.m. there will be a parade. Different clubs and organizations will sponsor floats centered around the bicentennial. The co-queen and princess nominees will ride in the parade. The Marching Unit will also participate. After the parade, the Student Council will sponsor a fish fry on the PCHS campus.

The football game will begin at 8 p.m. with Perquimans playing Gumberry. At halftime, the co-queens and princess will be announced. After the game there will be a dance held in the high school gym. It will be limited to students and their dates only. Music will be provided by Drew Fox of Virginia Beach, Va. The Homecoming queen contestants are: Joyce Winslow, Bridget Dale, Cindy Gossage, Paulette Gallop, Cheryl Walton, and Nena Griswold. They were nominated from the Senior class. The co-princesses will be chosen from the underclassmen. Contestants are: Junior class: Beverly Barnhill and Carol Skinner; Sophomore: Sharon Riddick and Cheryl Jones; Freshmen: Patti Riddick and Leola Jones. Students at PCHS will vote on Friday morning.
