

Barrett-Brown Exchange Vows

MRS. RALPH G. KATHERMAN

GREENVILLE — On Saturday afternoon at three p.m. in Hooker Memorial Christian Church, Miss Lois Jean Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.S.W. Brown of Greenville, and James Lee Barrett, son of Rev. and Mrs. Troy J. Barrett of Durham, were united in marriage with the Rev. Ralph G. Messick and the Rev. Troy J. Barrett, father of the groom, officiating at the double ring ceremony in a candlelight setting of autumn flowers.

Mr. David Winstead, organist, rendered a program of music. Mr. Bob Forbes, soloist, sang "Wedding Song" with guitar accompaniment and "My Cup Runneth Over." Miss Cathy Wilson, soloist, sang "Whither Thou Goest" and as the couple knelt for the benediction, "Wedding Prayer."

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Ralph C. Tucker. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smart presided at the guest register. Miss Marjorie Paramore presented the guests with scroll remembrances of the wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of white satapeau over taffeta designed with a portrait neckline outlined in a floral venise lace beaded with pearls. A double ruffle of the satapeau, edged in a tiny daisy patterned lace, complimented the neckline. A tucked sash of the gown fabric applied in the beaded lace accentuated the modified empire waistline. The long, fitted sleeves were trimmed in appliques of lace, with flared cuffs bordered in lace. The full A-line skirt, applied in lace, extended to a chapel length train with a deep ruffle flounce trimmed in lace edging the hemline. She wore a formal length illusion mantilla edged in lace to compliment her gown and carried a full cascading bouquet of white Tea roses, Stephanos and baby's breath, accented by Sonya Roses, English Ivy, and white bridal ribbon.

Miss Nancy Kathryn Brown, sister of the bride, of Greenville, was maid of honor. She wore a formal length shrimp knit gown designed with a scooped neckline trimmed in white daisy lace. The bodice of the sleeveless gown featured appliques of daisies centered with shrimp beads. The waistline of the full flared skirt was encircled with the daisy lace. The gown was complimented by a short bolero jacket with long fitted sleeves with flared cuffs and attached hood. The entire jacket was trimmed in the white venise daisy lace. She carried a cascading bouquet of Sonya Roses, bronze pom poms and baby's breath, tapered off with fall oak leaves and ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Linda Ann Fleming, of Greenville, Miss Sue Nash Nicholson, of Henderson, Miss Teresa Lynn Bolick, of Winston-Salem, and Miss Mary Lewis Woolen, of Charlotte. They wore gowns and carried flowers similar to the honor attendant.

Miss Karen Edwards, of Greenville, served as flower girl. She wore a formal length gown of shrimp knit designed with long sleeves, a high neckline and an empire bodice applied with venise lace flowers. She wore a white satin bow with streamers in her hair and carried a white basket full of autumn flowers tied with fall colored streamers.

Eric Nixon, cousin of the bride, of Florida, was ring bearer. He carried a white lace trimmed pillow and wore a beige camelot tux with brown velvet lapels identical to those of the groomsmen.

Honorary bridesmaids were Mrs. William H. Brown, sister-in-law of the bride, Miss Sally Boyette, Miss Anna Carson, all of Greenville, Mrs. J. Richard White, of Belvidere, and Miss Ellen Presnell, of Greensboro. They carried a single yellow rose embedded in baby's breath and foliage, tied with yellow satin streamers.

The bridegroom's brother, Robert T. Barrett, of Durham, was his best man. Ushers were William H. Brown, John I. Brown, David Gregory Brown, brothers of the bride, all of Greenville, William R. Barrett, brother of the groom, of Durham, David Smoak, cousin of the groom, of Greensboro, and Larry Bailey, of Gatesville.

The mother of the bride chose a floor length gown of blue knit with a matching lace jacket and matching accessories. The groom's mother wore a floor length dress of orchid chiffon with chantilly lace and matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white Bridal roses. At the end of the ceremony, they were remembered with a single yellow long stemmed carnation.

For going away, the bride chose a blue pants suit with matching accessories. She wore her mother's corsage. After a wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will reside in Hertford.

The bride is a graduate of J.H. Rose High School, Greenville, and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority and from where she received her B.S. degree in Business Administration. She is presently employed by Peoples Bank & Trust Co., Hertford.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Cary High School and North Carolina State University where he received his B.S. degree in Recreation and Parks Administration, is employed by the Roanoke-Chowan Mental Health Service, Ahoskie, and is a therapeutic counselor and director of Camp Chowanoc, Gatesville.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception, given by the parents of the bride, was held.

Pre-nuptial events honoring the couple included a

New Hope Church Will Present 'The Rapture'

"The Rapture," an exciting new color film that deals with Bible prophecy relating to the return of Christ, will be shown at New Hope United Methodist Church on Dec. 7 at 7:30 p.m.

This film adds a new dimension to the ministry of David Wilderson, a phenomenon of modern times. Led by God into one of the more difficult areas of the country, he pioneered a Gospel ministry that is now world-wide. Again, led by God, he began writing and produced a best seller, "The Cross and the Switchblade." And again, Wilderson has added a new field-motion picture and "The Rapture" is the result.

"The Rapture," in a very graphic way, reveals the folly of not being ready for the return of Christ whenever it occurs.

The public is cordially invited to see "The Rapture," which portrays how the news media would react to the sudden and unexplained disappearance of millions of people when Christ appears in God's chronology of events.

Thanksgiving Day Wedding

The wedding vows of Miss Joan Yvonne Miller and Ralph Garland Katherman were spoken Thursday, November 27 at 4 p.m. in the Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, Rt. 2, Hertford. The Reverend Charles Duling performed the double ring ceremony in a candle light setting of palms, white mums, glads, pom-poms and bronze mums.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. Eddie Brown and featured "Whither Thou Goest," "The Wedding Prayer," and "One Hand, One Heart" by soloist, Mr. Edward Jordan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.B. Miller of Route 2, Hertford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Katherman of Norfolk, Virginia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin, with empire bodice and high neckline overlaid with Chantilly lace; the long sleeves were made of Chantilly lace with cuffs of nylon rucking. The attached chapel length train was accented with Chantilly lace and had a deep border of nylon rucking. Her bouffant illusion veil edged in lace fell from a Camelot cap and was fingertip length. She carried a white Bible covered in lace and white roses.

Mrs. Carol H. Miller of Warrenton, N.C., sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Miss Paula Ann Miller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Harolyn Joy Katherman, sister of the groom, and Miss Rose Marie Whitehurst. They wore gowns of Jade green satin peau de soir and carried long stemmed Talisman roses.

Best man was the groom's father. Ushers were Michael B. Miller of Warrenton, N.C. and Paul Miller of Hertford, brothers of the bride.

Mistress of ceremony was Mrs. Wade E. Morgan of Route 2, Hertford. Guests were registered by Mrs. Louette M. Winslow, cousin of the bride of Tyner, N.C.

Mother of the bride wore a dress of deep coral, matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. Mother of the groom wore a peach and tan printed dress with tan accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple and their parents received guests in the vestibule of the church following the ceremony, after which the couple left for a trip to Williamsburg, Virginia. They will make their home at 3317 A Lyons Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia.

A Rehearsal Party was given by Mr. and Mrs. H.B. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. H.M. Katherman, Wednesday night at the Community Building in Winfall for approximately 150 guests.

A floating miscellaneous shower honored the bride on Oct. 18 at the Winfall Community Building. Hostesses were friends and relatives.

Mrs. Tildon Whitehurst and Miss Rose Marie Whitehurst entertained the bride, her attendants, and the mothers at a dinner party at Whistling Pine Restaurant on Nov. 15.

Mrs. Johnny Webb and several friends honored the couple with a party at her home. The bride was presented a gift of linen.

Mrs. Wade Morgan and Mrs. Bryan Miller, Jr., were hostess for a lingerie shower on Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. F.E. McCloskey and sons of Norfolk, Va. and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCloskey of Goshen, Ind. were guests of Mrs. R.B. Thach last Sunday.

Jason Hurdle has returned to his home in Belvidere after being a patient in the Albemarle Hospital.
