But in all sections of the county which border on the water, including Durants Neck and Harveys Neck, where there is a long shore line on Albemarle Sound, as well as on both sides of the Perquimans River for many miles, fishermen ply their trade, generally in connec-tion with their farming operations, though there are fishermen living in Hertford who set nets and carry on sound. Most of the fish caught in local waters are shipped to Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York markets, with several retailing to the local trade, for a great many of these fish are consumed in Pernuimans

Taking A Look Backward

GOODMAN-STANTON: Miss Audrey Louise Stan-ton, of Winfall, and E.A. Goodman Jr., of Durants Neck, were quietly married in a simple ceremony per-formed by the Rev. J.F. Stegall, pastor of the Hertford Baptist Church, on Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, the ceremony taking place at the parsonage. The bride, who is a daughter of W.J. Stanton, and Mrs. Stanton, of Winfall, was becomingly attired in a blue suit, with matching ac-cessories. Mr. Goodman, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E.A. Goodman of Durants Neck, is a prominent young farmer of that community. Both young people are very popular with a wide circle of friends. LOCATION OF LOCAL BUS STATION CHANGED TO WALKER'S STORE: The bus station is now located at Walker's, with Morgan Walker as agent, and Holt Scott, who has been working for the bus com-pany for the past three years, as assistant. The change was made last week, when the station was Machinery Act of 1971, GS. 105-308, Duty to list; penalty for failure.

Every person in whose name any property is to be listed under the terms of this sub-chapter shall list the property with the tax supervisor or proper list taker within the time allowed by law on an abstract setting forth the information required by this sub-chapter.

In addition to all other penalties prescribed by law, any person whose duty it is to list any property who wilfully fails or refuses to list the same within the time prescribed by law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months. The failure to list shall be prima facie evidence that the failure was wilful.

Any person who removes or conceals property for the purpose of evading faxation or who aides or abets the removal or concealment of property for the purpose of evading faxation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months.
