Belvidere Native:

Winslow Named Headmaster At Chowan Academy

Percy Lancelot Winslow, Jr., age 30 will assume the position of headmaster of the Chowan Academy, March 1, 1976. He is a native of Belvidere, N.C. He graduated from Perquimans High School in 1965 in the top ten percent of his class. He holds a B.S. Degree in Business Administration and a Master of Arts in Education with a Principal's certificate from East Carolina University. While at E.C.U. he was tapped for three honorary fraternities, Gamma Beta Phi, Beta Gamma Sigma, and Omicron Delta Epsilon. His teaching experience has been in the Pitt County School System, Greenville, N.C. and in Tarboro, N.C. For the past five years he has been a professor at the College of the Albemarle, teaching in the business department. While at C.O.A. he was selected "Teacher of the Year" on two occasions by the student body.

He is married to the former Teresa Eure and they reside in Belvidere. They have two children, one six years and one six months old. He and his family are members of the Friends Quaker Church. His hobbies include, fishing, hunting, baseball, and horseback riding. Winslow will relieve Mrs. Frances T. Hollowell, who accepted the position as headmistress temporarily in addition to her teaching duties. She is delighted to return to the classroom full time. During the five years Mrs. Hollowell held this position, the Chowan Academy grew from a school with seven grades to a complete unit with grades kindergarten through twelve, increasing from seven teachers to a faculty of sixteen.

In taking this position, Winslow feels that the Chowan Academy is here to stay. He feels a definite need for such an independent school in this area. It serves three counties, Chowan, Perquimans, and Gates. Since its organization in 1968, the enrollment has increased every year. He observes that all teachers hold A certificates and are teaching in their field. He is impressed that 100 per cent of the present Senior class has been accepted by an institution of higher learning. He noted that in addition to an excellent academic program, the high school offers many extracurricular activities; student government, yearbook staff, newspaper staff, National Honor Society, Chief Rockhook History Club; and in athletics, football, basketball, softball and baseball. They select nominees for the Morehead Award, Governor's School, Boy's State, and Girl's State each year.

Students show much progress in achievement tests each year. During the past two years the SAT scores ranged from 800-1400.

Chowan Academy is a N.C. Test Center for the S.S.A.T. T.B.H. Wood, chairman of the Chowan Academy Board of Directors states that the Board feels most fortunate in securing Winslow for the position of headmaster. He comes highly recommended in all qualities necessary to a good administrator. He will guide the school in its work towards accreditation. The school is approved by the N.C. Department of Public Instruction. It is affiliated with the N.C. Association of Independent Schools and with the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges and this is the organization through which Chowan Academy will seek its accreditation.

Council Receives Grant

The Economic Improvement Council, Inc. has been awarded a special grant of $83,875 under the Jobs Opportunities Program, Title X of the Public Works and Economic Development Act of 1965. This new program entitled Community Foods and Nutrition, is designed to provide employment opportunities for the most severely disadvantaged in the Albemarle Area.

The Title X (Community Foods and Nutrition Project) will address the needs of families who are eligible but are not participating in local food assistance programs. Food Service Workers will be employed to provide information and referral assistance to Social Services, Departments of Health, Title VII Elderly Feeding Program and other agencies operating food programs. The Food Service Workers will also assist families interested in family or Community Gardens. Instructions in proper gardening and canning techniques along with seeds, plants, fer-

Next Monday's visit of the Bloodmobile is being sponsored by the Perquimans Jaycees and the Perquimans County Chapter of the American Red Cross. Local citizens are asked to support the Bloodmobile.

License Plate Deadline Nears

RALEIGH — Edward L. Powell, Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, today urged North Carolina motorists who have not obtained their 1976 license plate validation stickers or license plates to do so before the February 16th deadline. The Commissioner also reminded owners of private automobiles that this year they keep their 1975 license plates and must purchase a validation sticker to update it. The sticker must be placed in the upper right-hand corner of the license plate by law.

Powell said "This year the deadline for displaying 1976 validation stickers and license plates has been extended to midnight, February 16th because the 15th falls on a Sunday. Since there is no legal authority to extend the deadline further, we urge all motorists to purchase their stickers or plates as soon as possible. The first four weeks of this registration renewal period indicate that less than one-third (one-third) of all North Carolina vehicle registrations have been renewed. By obtaining the license tag stickers and plates early, the inconvenience of waiting in long lines at the last minute will be avoided."

Powell reminds motorists that there are 102 branch offices across North Carolina in which license plates and stickers may be obtained or in Raleigh at the Motor Vehicles Building on New Bern Avenue.

Bicentennial Slides

The Perquimans County Extension Homemakers will sponsor two special showings of Bicentennial slides featuring "Two Hundred Years of Authentic Fashion". The objective of the presentation is to stimulate interest in the historic events of the past and to help discover the role of fashion in the history of the American Woman. Trends and developments of feminine fashion are traced through periods of extreme patriotism, economic crisis, war, prosperity, and active feminism. It shows how fashion evolves — what women wear and why, where styles come from and how they become popular.

Showing times will be a 12 noon, and 8 p.m., both at the County Office Building on Tuesday, February 10.

The public is invited. There is no charge for this educational opportunity.

Whitehurst Attends Short Course At N.C. State

Tildon Whitehurst Jr., a Perquimans County farmer, is attending the 24th annual two-week Short Course in Modern Farming being held February 2-13 at North Carolina State University in Raleigh. Whitehurst is involved in the production of corn, soybeans, cattle and small grains. He farms approximately 65 acres of land with his father, Tildon Whitehurst Sr.

Scholarships for 2,511 young North Carolinians in agriculture have been provided by the hometown banks of the state since the Short Course began in 1953.

The expenses for Whitehurst's trip to Raleigh are being paid by Peoples Bank in Hertford according to R.L. Stevenson, Executive Vice President of the bank.

An enrollment of around 100 is expected for the 1976 Short Course. While in Raleigh these young farmers from all sections of North Carolina will learn to recognize and evaluate technology in a changing agri-business environment. The program covers broad areas of interest to agricultural leaders and specific commodity information.

The Short Course is one of the numerous agricultural projects sponsored by the North Carolina Bankers Association which has won national recognition for many years for its service to agriculture.

Poll Shows Green In The Lead

RALEIGH — An independent poll conducted in December by W.H. Long Marketing, Inc., of Greensboro shows House Speaker Jimmy Green the front-runner by a comfortable margin in a field of eight potential candidates for lieutenant governor this year.

The poll was conducted by LMNCP during the period Dec. 1 through 27 chiefly in 76 of the state's 100 counties. Green was the choice of 22.5 per cent of those interviewed.

Second was Waverly F. Akins of Wake County with 15.6 per cent, followed by John M. Jordan of Alamance, 13.8 per cent; Herman A. Moore, Mecklenburg, 13.6 per cent; Herbert L. Hyde, Buncombe, 12.7 per cent; Howard N. Lee, Orange County, 11.8 per cent; E. Frank Stephenson Jr., Hertford, 6.3 per cent; and George Marion, Surry, 2.3 per cent. George Wood of Camden, polled 1.6 per cent as a write-in, while 9.6 per cent were undecided, another 7.5 per cent gave no answer, and 2.5 per cent said "none."

The accompanying analysis stated in part: "Obviously, nobody got a majority ... Speaker of the House Jimmy Green, as expected, was a strong first." Green, a member of the General Assembly since 1961, is expected to formally launch his campaign later this month.

File Early

GREENSBORO — Taxpayers who file their returns in January or early February can expect any refund due in four to five weeks or roughly half the time late filers will have to wait, Robert A. LeBaube, IRS District Director for North Carolina said.

Individuals who delay filing until late March or April — the peak filing time — may have to wait for their refunds as long as 10 weeks.

Another advantage to filing early, according to the district director, is avoidance of careless errors often made by last minute filers who are rushed. These errors — which frequently involve incorrect arithmetic, use of the wrong tax table, or failure to sign the return — can further delay processing of the return as well as the refund check.

Last year, 1.5 million taxpayers in North Carolina received refunds, amounting to $468 Million.
