

Bethel-Snug Harbor Community News

By FRED A NELSON
A miscellaneous Floating Shower will be given for Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Harrell at Bethlehem Church of Christ by the ladies of the church. The hours are from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Friday, May 7 and the public is invited to attend. The Harrell's home was recently destroyed by fire.

Last Tuesday a group of ladies from the Bethel Home Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Chris Curran to strip quilt squares. Present other than the hostess were Mrs. Selma Proctor, Mrs. Gladys Gough, Mrs. Bessie Harrell, and Mrs. Edith Thompson. Much work was accomplished and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Another session will be held on Tuesday at Mrs. Curran's home to continue work on the quilt.

Reverend Samuel Fowler was special guest speaker at The Church of God Easter Sunrise Service in Kenley, N.C.

Miss Sybil Hobbs spent the weekend recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hobbs. Miss Hobbs is a junior at East Carolina University at Greenville, N.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Baker of Chesapeake, Va. visited with Mr. Baker's grandmother, Mrs. Ola Merritt, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nelson visited relatives in Mechanicsville and Blacksburg, Va. over the weekend. On Friday they dined at Settlers Restaurant, Strawberry Banks, Hampton, Va. in celebration of their wedding anniversary.

Remember Sunday and make it "her" day. MOTHERS.

Several members of the Bethel Home Extension Club visited the club President, Mrs. Mary Byrum, in Newport News, Va. last week. Mrs. Byrum who is recuperating from a long illness is at the home of her sister, Mrs. B. Wilson, 27 Patton Drive 23606. Those making the visitation were Mrs. Selma Proctor, Mrs. Chris Curran, Mrs. Gladys Gough, Mrs. Bessie Harrell, and Mrs. Edith Thompson.

Congratulations to Diane Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Harris, and Brenda Schultheiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Schultheiss, both students were listed on the Perquimans High School Honor Roll.

KAREN EVANS

Places First In Contest

Karen Evans, a seventh grader at Chowan Academy was recently named first place winner in the state by the Tar Heel Junior Historian magazine. Ms. Evans correctly identified a Betty Lamp in a statewide contest and for her efforts was given the first place medal.

The contest is sponsored four times each year by the Tar Heel Junior Historical Association and honors students who excel in their studies of history.

Ms. Evans is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Evans of Rocky Hock.

ACCEPTED AT UNC
Ms. Jennifer White has been notified of her acceptance at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill in the School of Nursing Program. Ms. White will enter UNC for the 1976-77 academic term. She is the daughter of Mrs. Nina B. White Sr. and the late James Emory White and is a graduate of Perquimans County High School.

HOME FROM TRIP
Mrs. Lloyd Horton has returned to her home after a trip to the Caribbean Sea Islands of San Juan, Puerto Rico, St. Martin, and St. Thomas. Taking a flight to Miami, Florida, Mrs. Horton joined her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Horton and three daughters where the group boarded a ship for the cruise. After returning to the States, Mrs. Horton spent a week in St. Petersburg, Florida, with her son and family.

Governors of Snug Harbor Property Owners Association will hold their regular monthly board meeting Saturday beginning at 11 a.m. in the clubhouse. President, Thomas Wilson, will preside.

Take time to read, it is the fulfillment of knowledge.

Belvidere Homemakers Hold Regular Meeting

Mrs. Elton Layden was hostess to the Belvidere Homemakers Club Tuesday evening in her home with members and a guest, Mrs. Clyde Gordon of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, present and answered the roll call by "Plans for Spring."

The song of the month "God of Our Fathers" was sung followed by Mrs. Layden giving the devotions using as her topic, "Are You With Me."

The program for the month was given in two parts with Mrs. Thurman Riddick giving some sewing hints. Mrs. Riddick also showed a scarf with the lettuce edging which she had made from attending an extension workshop recently. Mrs. Paige Underwood, County Extension Agent, displayed and demonstrated making a Betsy Ross doll from a 32 oz. drink bottle and other materials. Directions and patterns were to be sent to the members.

Mrs. C.T. Rogerson, Jr., president, presided during the business meeting.

The club voted to participate in ways to observe National Extension Homemakers Week May 2 thru May 8. Mrs. Claude Winslow will represent the Belvidere Club Friday, May 7 on the Court House Lawn by a pillow demonstration. The bandana handkerchief workshop was announced to be May 3 at the County Office Building from 9:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. and the district workshop May 11 and 12 from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. at the Blackwell Memorial Baptist Church, Elizabeth City.

Plans were made to serve home-made ice cream at the Craftsman Fair in Elizabeth City on September 23 from 2:30 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. as a ways and means project.

Show and Tell included a pillow made by Mrs. Layden and a hanging basket holder, by Mrs. Ruben Knopf.

Mrs. Ellis Winslow recreation leader led the group in a word game with Mrs. Estes Copeland receiving the prize.

During the social hour Mrs. Layden served delicious refreshments with the meeting adjourned for a special meeting in May. Mrs. Thurman Riddick will be the June hostess in her home.
