BICENTENNIAL PROGRAM — A Bicentennial program was presented Monday on the courthouse lawn by members of Mrs. Rachel Weeks' fourth grade class at Perquimans Central Grammar School. The students sang the state songs of the original thirteen colonies and were accompanied by Danny Meads, music instructor, on the piano. Several solos were also performed. These included the state song of Connecticut sung by Charles Leigh, South Carolina's state song sung by Monica Moore. Tim Bryant sang New Hampshire's state song and the state song of New York was performed by Jeanette Murph. Approximately 75 people gathered to hear the fourth graders. (Ward photos)
