

HANDWORK — Roxanna Jackson stops to look at the booth by Barbara Rose (right) displaying quilting and other handwork.

COLONIAL SKILL — Members of the Belvidere Homemakers Club displayed quilting in their booth set up in the high school gymnasium on Saturday. A large crowd was on hand to view the many displays, works of art, and local talent.

DOLL TOWN — Barbara Nixon stands in front of the log cabin Doll Town booth sponsored by the Helen Gaither Home Demonstration Club in the gym as a southern belle prepares to enter and view the exhibit.

SQUARE DANCING — Due to rain, the Saturday night street dance had to be called off, but the square dancing Tar Heel Teens scheduled to perform were on hand in the gym during the evening to entertain the somewhat disappointed crowd.

SPIRIT OF '76 — These young Perquimans citizens depicted the true spirit of '76 in the July 4th parade.

HAPPY SMILES — Jeannie Umphlett and "friends" give a big smile and a wave from the Hertford Motor Company float with the theme, "Kids Love America."

FLAG PAGEANT — The acclaimed Hertford Fifes and Drums presented their meaningful flag pageant Sunday night following the parade. Shown above, Keith Haskett and Billy White display a sample of the unit flag used in America's history.

CHURCH SERVICE — As the Fourth of July weekend neared a close, the Perquimans County Jaycees sponsored a county-wide church service at the Harris Shopping Center. A large crowd attended. The message of freedom was delivered by Rev. Joseph Scalf, also participating was Rev. Stanley Nixon.

CYCLISTS — The crowd watches passing cyclists as the Sunday parade draws to a close.

The Sunday night fireworks display by the American Legion was the spectacular ending for a spectacular weekend.
