Bethel-Snug Harbor Community News

By FRED A NELSON

Miss Ellen Long has accepted a teaching position in the Vance County School System. Miss Long is a May graduate of Atlantic Christian College where she received her Bachelor of Science degree. She majored in Elementary Education with an area of concentration in English. Ellen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett B. Long of Bethel.

Reverend and Mrs. Samuel Fowler of Snug Harbor have returned from a ten-day vacation in Florida and Georgia where they visited relatives and friends in Doctor's Inlet and Starke, Florida, and Doraville and Lawrenceville, Georgia. Also included was a visit with the Duane Rannels of Florida and Snug Harbor property owners.

Mr. J.B. Sykes, father of Mrs. Samuel Fowler, spent several days recently visiting his son, Jack, in Rocky Mount, N.C.

Birthday wishes go this week to Mrs. Ray (Louise) Ward, wife of Perquimans Weekly manager, who celebrated her special day Monday. Many happy returns!

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Floyd of Newport News, Va. is spending some time at their camp in Holiday Island.

Reverend Robert White of Aulander, N.C. visited his sister, Mrs. Dewey Perry, Jr. last week. The occasion was the anniversary of Mrs. Perry's birthday. The Reverend White presented his sister with a birthday cake.

Mrs. Nellie Stallings and her mother, Mrs. Virginia Dail, spent Friday at Holiday Island visiting the Stan Brantleys. They spent part of the day fishing with a catch of two dozen or more small fish. But the really big one was a two-pound catfish which was the prize and pride of Mrs. Dail.

M. E. Nelson who was a patient at Albemarle Hospital for four weeks was discharged late Thursday. He is convalescing at his home and doctor's orders is that he must have plenty of quiet and rest for the next few weeks.

T. H. Harrell, who was hospitalized in the Albemarle Hospital for several days was released on Saturday. Mr. Harrell is recuperating at his home.

Joseph C. Dickens, graduate student and research assistant at Texas A. M. University, College Station, Texas, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Nelson.

Immediate members of the Fleetwood family enjoyed a get-together and dinner on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Vernon Barrow in Edenton. Among those attending from the Bethel area were the families of Maynard and Thomas Fleetwood and their aunt, Mrs. Lenna Griffin.

The Harold Wise family of Woodbridge, Va. spent several days recently at their home in Snug Harbor.
