Taking A Look Backward

OCT. 1938
By VIRGINIA WHITE
TRANSEAU
WORK BEGUN ON NEW TELEPHONE BUILDING FOR HERTFORD PLANT: The new telephone building got under construction early this week and unauthorized sources have it that the building will be completed and the new dial service ready for use "around the first of the year." The building, judging from the ground layout, will be a small affair of brick construction, only large enough to accommodate the necessary machinery or equipment. The telephone company is noncommunicative about its building plans, but the location on which construction has started, is on Grubb Street, adjoining the old Divers' Motor Company building. Commissioner of Utilities Stanley Winborne in August substantiated rumors here that a dial system would shortly replace the present exchange, when he issued an order directing the Norfolk and Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company, to "replace its manual exchange in Hertford with a modern dial exchange." The new building on Grubb Street is probably the outcome.

and Mrs. R.E. White have moved to the residence on Grubb Street vacated by Mrs. Ellie Riddick, who recently took an apartment in The Hotel Hertford.

BETHEL CLUB MEETS: Bethel Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. J.C. Hobbs on Friday afternoon. Miss Gertie Chappell talked on "Colors." Mrs. Mary Hayman on "Styles" and Miss Gladys Hamrick on "shoes." The hostesses, Mrs. S.M. Long and Miss Ruth Mansfield, served fruit. Those present were: Mrs. Ennis Phillips, Mrs. S.I. Cullipher, Mrs. R.S. Chappell, Mrs. Reuben Stallings, Mrs. R.F. Standin, Mrs. Mary L. Hayman, Mrs. T.C. Chappell, Mrs. C.T. Phillips, Mrs. S.W. Long, Mrs. John Corpew, Mrs. W.P. Long, Mrs. F.S. Long, Mrs. S.M. Long, Mrs. J.C. Hobbs, Mrs. J.B. Basnight, Mrs. W.D. Perry, Misses Ruth Mansfield, Gertie Chappell, and Gladys Hamrick, and a visitor, Mrs. William Corpew.

Letter To The Editor

Whose Interest Is Ford Serving?

TO THE EDITOR:
Even now voters in the United States vote along traditional and sectional lines. Only in recent years has the two party system become evident in the South and especially in North Carolina with the election of James Holshouser, the first Republican Governor since the Reconstruction Era. One party politics spawns corruption in government. The public should examine the candidates and where the candidates stand in regard to the issues before voting. Yet the apathy demonstrated by the American voters in securing the aforesaid knowledge is virtually unprecedented.

In response to the letter to the editor appearing in the Sept. 30 issue of The Perquimans Weekly, one cannot deny that President Ford came into office under extremely bad political and economic conditions. Yet has the situation actually changed? Unemployment remains at an all time high. In Perquimans County alone approximately 35 percent of the white population and nearly 70 percent of the nonwhite population are currently living below the national poverty level. It has been said that politics is a game of self interest. During President Ford's administration corporate taxes have gone down by approximately six billion dollars while at the same time, taxes on middle-income Americans have gone up by almost five billion dollars.

It should also be called to attention that it was President Ford that maintained the embargo on American grain exports until it had been harvested and was in the hands of the corporate grain dealers. Only then was the embargo lifted, which in turn boosted the price and enabled the dealers and exporters to make huge profits.

The question one should ask is, Whose interest is President Ford serving?

Speaking Out On Postal Service

TO THE EDITOR
The United States Postal Service was made a quasi-government corporation in 1970. The law which establishes this corporation gave it authority to unionize the same as private industry, with one exception the right to strike.

The National Labor Agreement, which started immediately with the corporate structure, has provisions which are above and beyond anything in the private sector, such as no-layoff. Also, when labor disagrees with management's decisions, management cannot act. The decisions must go to arbitration, etc.

The postal service is responsible to no one for its expenditures. Any deficit must be paid by the taxpayers.

The salary structures which the U.S. Postal Service set for itself for management and labor have a ceiling of $63,000+. A large number of management officers receive salaries which far exceed those of Senators and Congressmen. The Post Office labor force receives salaries which far exceed those for government employees. Prior to the formation of the Postal corporation, these were comparable.

Overstaffing and idle hours in the Postal Service is now a way of life. The law requires eight hours work for eight hours' pay in other agencies.

The union contract which the Postal Service negotiates with itself supersedes the law of our land. The financial problems in the Postal Service have been created because of this labor agreement. Excessive increase in Postage has caused a Decrease in Mail Volume. Many of the major users are now finding alternate means in lieu of paying this price. The no-layoff provision in the contract leaves a fixed number work force with a decrease in mail volume. Postal Employees receive High Pay for Doing Nothing. Unless the attrition rate equals the workload decreases, the imbalance between the manhours and the workload will continue. The no-layoff clause does not permit management to reduce the work force to correct the imbalance. An effective work measurement system has been eliminated, and each office is permitted to set its own work standards which supports this type of imbalance. Efficiency and economy in the operation of the Postal Service under this labor agreement are impossible.

The upper management of the Postal Service has committed various acts to shield this truth from the public. Hearings before the subcommittee of the Congress when properly reviewed will clearly identify the fabrications. How can Congress or the President ignore this when conduct of a similar nature in the Executive Branch of the government brought about the removal of the President of this Nation.

The investigative arm of the Congress, known as the General Accounting Office, has presented reports and testimony which are absolute fabrications. Documents proving these fabrications are in the hands of Congress. For Congress to use these reports while in the process of preparing legislation for laws to govern this Nation is a damnable act. The need to refer this to the Justice Department for an in-depth probe is of the utmost importance if our government and the nation's business is to function properly. The Board of Governors, the Postmaster, the entire upper management of the United States Postal Service should be held responsible and accountable for the multi-billion dollar waste which they and they alone are responsible for.

I invite everyone interested in an efficient U.S. Postal Service to write their Congressman and make their views known.

CARLTON G. BEALL
(Former Postmaster, Washington, D.C., Retired)
+The only limit on U.S. Postal Service salary is that no employee can make over $63,000. The total subsidy for the current fiscal year is 1.5 billion, plus an estimate deficit of 1.4 billion, representing a total amount the taxpayers have to shell out annually, plus the price of stamps.

To the Voters of The First District

There are many reasons you should vote for Congressman

Walter B. Jones

Tuesday, Nov. 2nd

Legislative Experience, Seniority, Ability to Communicate with other Members of Congress And Dedicated Service to His Constituents

But most important, he is

- ☆ Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Tobacco (which puts him in position to save our present Program)
- ☆ Ranking Member (former chairman) Subcommittee on Oil, Seed & Rice (with jurisdiction over soy beans, peanuts, etc.)
- ☆ Third Senior Member of Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries (with jurisdiction over Coast Guard and many of our Coastal problems)

LET'S KEEP THIS STRONG PERSONAL SERVICE IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

— Be sure to vote on Nov. 2 — Be absolutely sure to vote for —
