SPECIAL TREAT — On Friday, students at Perquimans Central Grammar and Perquimans Union Schools had a special treat in store when they went for lunch. Shown in the top picture, Mrs. Seymour Chappell, lunchroom employee, plays the witch with the treats which proved to be very popular. In the middle picture, the lunchroom personnel at Perquimans Central offer a ghastly appearance while lunchroom personnel at Hertford Grammar (bottom) offer their special treat, spooky faces. # Taking A Look Backward

Nov. 1938
By VIRGINIA WHITE
TRANSEAU
75-YEAR OLD FARMER PICKS OWN COTTON: When he decided that the price of cotton was too low to allow him to hire pickers and still show a profit from his crop, John R. Chappell, 75-year old Belvidere farmer, said he'd have to pick it himself to make anything from it. The old gentleman, who has seen seventy-five cotton seasons come and go, waded into the acre he planted himself and picked two thousand pounds, leaving only about one hundred pounds of scrap cotton. His granddaughter, Mrs. Louis Winslow, informing The Perquimans Weekly, thought the accomplishment quite remarkable for one of his many years. The Weekly thought so too.

STICJ READY FOR SALE ON SATURDAY: The Hertford Building and Loan Association is issuing a series of stock which will go on sale Saturday, Nov. 5, this being the 37th series of stock to be offered to the public.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT: Born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wood of Woodville on Monday, Oct. 31, 1938, a son.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT: Mr. and Mrs. Marilyn Boyce of Chapanoke, announce the birth of a son on Saturday, Oct. 19, 1938.

NEW HOPE FARMER RAISES BIG POTATOES: When W.C. Barclift, New Hope farmer raises potatoes, he really raises potatoes and no fooling. This week the Hertford Banking Company is exhibiting two massive specimens grown by the New Hope man. One potato weighs seven and one-quarter pounds, and the other six and a half pounds. They are well-formed and more round than long, as potatoes usually grow.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED: Announcement has been received in New Hope of the marriage of Miss Clara Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams, to Horace Whitfield Miller Jr., on Friday, Oct. 28, 1938. The ceremony was performed in Charlotte. Miss Williams is a graduate of Perquimans High School and also a graduate nurse of a Rocky Mount Hospital.

Local dollars do more good than you know

Would you knowingly help another town at the expense of your own? Of course not, but everytime you spend a dollar you are exercising a privilege, knowingly or not, that either helps or hurts our community.

When you choose to trade with a locally-owned business, the dollar you spend stays in the community and circulates many times over through wages, local taxes, bank deposits, new trade and many other home-enriching investments.

So, next time you have a choice between spending your paycheck locally or with a chain store, owned by outside interests, do some good for your hometown. Trade where you live. It makes sense!

Veterans Day Salute

Throughout the United States there are some 26 million Americans — men and women — who have served honorably in our armed forces during the four wars of the 20th Century. These are the Nation's war veterans whom we honor this Veterans Day 1976.

These 26 million living Americans have written chapters of history underscored with valor in thousands of obscure places around the world — places such as Chateau Thierry, Belleau Wood, Omaha Beach, Guadalcanal, Inchon, Port Chop Hill, the Mekong Delta, and the Au Shau Valley.

In the finest tradition as set forth by our founding fathers, these gallant Americans have served with honor to uphold the cause of freedom and individual dignity. They have witnessed the wanton waste of war; they have known the savage terror of battle; they have felt the frustration of loneliness and boredom wrought by separation in both time and distance from loved ones.

Through their sacrifices, our veterans have forged a lofty tradition of service by the citizen-soldier in behalf of the national purpose. Through their performance of duty, America's veterans have fulfilled the greatest obligation of their citizenship.

Their courage, their devotion, and their sacrifice have earned our sincere respect, our highest admiration, and our heartfelt gratitude.

But service to their country and mankind did not end with the exchange of military garb for civilian clothing. Upon returning to their civilian roles, America's war veterans have demonstrated an exemplary stability and responsibility in our society, reflecting their respect for the heritage of their citizenship and their desire to work for the betterment of community, state, and Nation.

On this Veterans Day 1976, we salute the men and women who have answered our country's call to meet the challenge of an armed aggressor. Here in Perquimans County — we can help give greater meaning to this day through our participation in its observance. The strength of our observance, added to the thousands taking place throughout the land, should be a reaffirmation of our pride in America and a rededication to her founding principles.

COA To Present Recital

The sound of music will be predominant at College of the Albemarle at 3 p.m. this Saturday in the gymnasium when voice students at the college, under the direction of Dr. Clifford Bair, professor emeritus, present their first recital of the academic year.

The premiere of the 1976-77 season will be devoted to the development of the American art song. Vocal selections dating from 1919 to 1941, including a variety of both serious and comic songs will be rendered.

George Chadwick's, "O Let Nigh Speak of Me," considered by members of the American Academy of Teachers of Singing to be the first great American art song, will be included in the program. The recital will also feature art song arrangements of spirituals, songs by the North Carolina composer Charles Vardell and Vittorio Giannini, founder of the N.C. School of

An Obligation

TO THE EDITOR:

North Carolina had signer Congressman Rose among the 124 U.S. Senators and Congressmen recently signing "A Declaration of Interdependence" and Congressmen F. Andrews, Neal and Preyer voting for "The Atlantic Union" on April 1, 1976 (Roll No. 157). At the same time, non-signer Cong. Henderson did not vote (did not defend) against the "Union." Since both the "Declaration" and the "Union" spell out exactly the opposite of their oath (To defend our Constitution), they should all be ousted from office and should be brought before a criminal court for trial.

Freedom is not free...we either use it or we will most certainly lose it.

We, the People, are obligated to support our duly elected officials only to the exact degree that they properly serve all in accordance with their oath, our Bill of Rights, and our Constitution. On the other hand, we are obligated to oppose any and all failures, on their part, to so serve. You do as you will but I shall not rest until all such violators are facing the bar of justice.

Introducing the new glass fireplace screen! It's the Harthglass.

Hart's newest innovation is a glass firescreen, with mesh curtains that drape both sides of the four-paneled tempered glass doors. (The mesh comes at no extra charge to you.)

Harthglass is available in three sales-sparking finishes: antique brass, satin black and brass, or polished brass.

Function, not just beauty. Your customers get protection; sparks and ashes can't get out, children and pets can't get in. And the glass panels radiate more heat into the room than any conventional screens. Real fuel for thought when cold weather's coming on.
